HEAVY TRAILER HIT BY TRAIN IN NEW OXFORD

A Shrewsbury, York County, truck loaded with 19 tons of coke was smashed and most of its cargo scattered when it was struck by two diesel units of a Western Maryland freight train at a private road crossing in New Oxford at 10:35 o'clock Wednesday night.

Marion M. Miller, 28, Stewartstown, the truck driver, jumped clear of the tracks after trying briefly to flag down the oncoming train with a flashlight. He escaped injury.

Western Maryland Detective Milton R. Tipton, who investigated the crash, said there was damage totaling possibly $300 to the two diesel units while the heavily laden trailer was badly damaged. Part of the wrecked trailer had to be cut off with an acetylene torch after the accident to clear the tracks for rail traffic.

TRIED TO STOP TRAIN

The detective said Miller had driven to the rear of the Read Standard Foundry on Hanover St. to unload his cargo of coke. He was using a private road crossing over the Western Maryland tracks near the Hanover St. crossing when the right rear wheels of the trailer dropped off the crossing and into a gutter with the trailer standing across the track.

Thinking the track was a siding, Miller said he paid little attention when he heard the freight train whistle for the Hanover St. crossing. It was only when the Hagerstown-bound freight from York was bearing down upon his truck that he realized the danger. He grabbed a flashlight and ran down the track for about 20 or 25 feet to signal the engineer but soon had to leap out of the train's path for safety as it struck his truck.

The impact swung the trailer around to the other side of the track. The 45-car train was cut to allow Hanover St. traffic to flow and the torch was secured to clear the tracks for passage of the train. It was after 2 a.m. when the train was able to proceed. The engineer was R. M. Boswell.

A railroad company pole along the tracks was snapped off by the trailer. Repairs had to be made to the diesel before they could proceed. Orville McCleary, Shrewsbury, was listed as owner of the truck.

U.S. Plane With 23 Aboard Is Down In Ocean

ARGENTIA, Nfld. (AP)—A U.S. military transport plane disappeared today near the southeast tip of Newfoundland. Canadian and U.S. planes and ships began a search of the frigid waters.

Information here was that 28 persons were aboard but a spokesman at McGuire Air Force Base in New Jersey said there were 23 persons—10 Navy crewmen and 13 passengers—on the four-engine Military Air Transport Service C-118. It was on a flight from Port Lyautey, Morocco, to Norfolk, Va., via the Azores and Argentina.

The last word from the missing aircraft was a radio message to Air Traffic Control at Gander, Nfld. The pilot reported he was 455 miles southeast of Argentina. There was no mention of trouble.

LEFT AZORES WEDNESDAY

The C-118 left Lajes in the Azores Wednesday night. Royal Canadian Air Force search headquarters said it was due at Argentina at 6:37 a.m.

There was an unconfirmed report that a U.S. Navy pilot saw an explosion at 6:14 a.m. about 28 miles southeast of Argentina. Search officials said this might have been a flare.

Gander Air Traffic Control declared an emergency when the plane did not report by radio as scheduled.

HOLD LITTLE HOPE

Those aboard were given little chance of survival if the plane landed in the water. The air temperature was near zero in Newfoundland this morning. The Weather Office said the ocean water would be between 32 and 35 degrees.

Search planes had sunny weather to aid their hunt but high winds and flying spray created the hazard of icing for surface vessels. The plane left the Azores with enough fuel for about 11½ hours flying. The fuel would have been used up by 10:30 a.m. today.

SERVES ON HELICOPTER

Sgt. Charles R. Wilceman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dervin C. Wilceman, R. 4, is participating in an operation in the South Atlantic, while serving with Marine Helicopter Squadron 264 aboard the dock landing ship USS Hermitage.

Military Rites For Paul I. Orner

Funeral services for Paul Ira Orner, 44, Arendtsville World War II Air Force veteran, who died suddenly here Thursday night, were held this morning at 10 o'clock at the Bender Funeral Home on Carlisle St. The Rev. Maynard Barnhart Jr., pastor of Arendtsville Lutheran Church, officiated.

Interment services were held with full military honors this afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery, Arlington, Va. These Air Force Reserve officers served as the pallbearers: Lt. Col. Allen A. Beaumont, Majors Clair S. Hazell, Paul B. Kuhn, Charles W. Painter, James F. Philbin and Vernon R. Smith.

SHERMAN IS CHOSEN AGAIN BY MERCHANTS

Mares Sherman, York St. merchant and past president of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce, was elected president of the Retail Merchants Association at its meeting Wednesday afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce office in the Plaza building.

Sherman had headed the Retail Merchants for the last six months.

moving up from the vice presidency upon the resignation of George A. Miller who left Gettysburg to accept an assignment with the American Automobile Association in another community.

Donald Hershey was elected vice president and Frank Hower was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

NEED CHRISTMAS MONEY

Count of the vote cast by members of the Retail Merchants showed Fred Faber to be a new member of the board, succeeding George Miller. Frank Hower and Donald Hershey were re-elected as directors.

Reports at the meeting showed the Merchants still are $394 short of the $2,500 sought to pay for the purchase of new Christmas

GARDEN CLUB OBSERVES 10TH ANNIVERSARY

The Biglerville Garden Club celebrated its 10th anniversary with a dinner meeting in the Lamp Post Tea Room Wednesday evening. Many appreciation awards were given. Thirty-six members attended, with 19 charter members present.

Mrs. H. David Pitzer, a past president, welcomed the group. She also acted as a mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. A. L. Leinart, also a past president, presented the charter members with corsages. Mrs. Warren Enck, the club's first president, recited "A Gardener's Prayer."

Mrs. Elmer Yoder, another past president, presented a brass bowl planter to Mrs. George Slaybaugh, who aided the club by selling garden club materials in her store.

Mrs. Pitzer read a congratulatory message from Mrs. James Hannigan, District Four director. The club scrapbook was presented to the members by the historian, Miss Alma Miller.

RECEIVE SILVER PINS

Mrs. Earl E. Carey, another past president, explained the significance and meaning of the silver membership pins which were given to all active members as favors. Mrs. Pitzer read another letter of appreciation to Mrs. O. A. Nary from other members.

Mrs. Nary had served ten years on the civic improvement and beautification committee. She has also been book chairman for the National Council Books, Inc., (Continued On Page 13)

COMMITTEE OF "AC" GROUP TO MEET TUESDAY

The executive committee of the Adams County Agricultural Extension Association will have a full day's schedule of training and decisions ahead of it when it meets Tuesday to reorganize for the coming year.

The committee members will gather at the Varsity Diner meeting room, Carlisle St., at 9:30 o'clock Tuesday morning and it will be 3:30 o'clock before the session concludes, according to the notice sent the members by County Agent Frank S. Zettle.

Need for an all-day session reflects the increased responsibilities of the extension association, Azeit Zettle said.

The members will take up a review of the bylaws first; then reorganize by electing officers for the coming year. Also scheduled for the morning is a review of the history and philosophy of 4-H Club work, a review of the function of the executive committee and a review of the relationship between the extension service and Pennsylvania State University. Dinner will cost each committee member $2.

The afternoon program will be devoted to the 4-H Club program in Adams County plus a new series of projects started last year and continuing into the current year under the title of "Community Planning." During last year a number of committees were set up under the auspices of the extension association to study everything from youth activities to conservation. The committees are studying what exists in the county and what should, in the committee's belief, exist in the future. The extension association will have the task of deciding what is valuable for future activities and make an effort to promote such developments.

$700 Accident Near Cashtown

Damage totaled $700 when a truck and a car collided Wednesday afternoon at 1:45 o'clock on the Lincoln Highway eight miles west of here at the Cashtown intersection.

State police said John W. Bream Jr., 29, Orrtanna R. 1, driving a car west, attempted a left turn and his car was struck by a west-bound truck operated by John E. Eutzy, 31, Wilmington, Del. No injuries were listed. Damage was $200 to the truck and $500 to the car.

SUPPER POSTPONED

The Mt. Joy Missionary Society today announced that the mission study and covered dish supper to be held next Wednesday at the church has been postponed "until a later date, depending on the weather."

REFUSES TO TURN BACK

Galvao, in a radio talk with the U.S. Naval pilot who tracked him down, refused to turn around and go to San Juan and bluntly told him: "Destination Angola."

But he added: "Will accept conference on board Santa Maria with U.S. authorities or any other than Portuguese or Spanish (Salazar's close ally)."

The 66-year-old rebel leader, a former army captain and leading Portuguese writer, told the Navy pilot, Lt. (j.g.) Daniel L. Krauss, he wanted to "discharge passengers unharmed—earliest." He has aboard 600 passengers, including 38 Americans, but messages from

MISS JANETHAY MARRIES HERE ON WEDNESDAY

Miss Janet Lee Hay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Hay, R. 3, became the bride of Robert L. Neff, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Carroll Neff, Coraopolis, Pa., in the Gettysburg Church of the Brethren Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. Reynolds Simmons Jr. The decorations included candles and white carnations in the altar vases. The organist was Miss Mary Ann Hartman.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length gown of white nylon sheer, pitted bodice fashioned with a draped scoop neckline and short sleeves, and a gathered bouffant skirt caught up at the side with a white rose. Her small face veil fell from a white hat of horse hair braid trimmed with pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations. Her only jewelry was a tiny gold heart, worn since a baby.

IN WEDDING PARTY

The maid of honor, Miss Barbara Ann Hay, R. 3, wore a street-length dress of medium blue brocade, fashioned with a scooped neckline, forming a V in the neck, and a gathered skirt. Her small matching hat was also of medium blue. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink and white carnations. The best man was Steven B. Hornik, Mifflintown. George Niemo, Mifflintown, and Robert L. Hay, Gettysburg, were the ushers.

The bride's mother wore a beige sheath dress and matching accessories. The groom's mother's apparel included a royal blue sheath dress and matching accessories.

Captive Ocean Liner Is Racing For West Africa Shadowed By U.S. Plane

By SAUL PETT

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)—Shadowed by a U.S. Navy patrol plane, the captive liner Santa Maria raced toward West Africa today. U.S. destroyers set out to intercept the fugitive ship but President Kennedy said American officers had not been ordered to board her.

Portuguese rebel leader Henrique Galvao, commanding the seized liner as "occupied" Portuguese territory in his revolt launched on the high seas, boldly announced his destination as Angola, the ancient Portuguese colony on the coast of southwest Africa.

But this could be a ruse to mislead interceptors. The Santa Maria—at last report half way between Puerto Rico and West Africa and heading on a southeasterly course—still was in a position to swing back toward South America.

Galvao, in a radio talk with the U.S. Naval pilot who tracked him down, refused to turn around and go to San Juan and bluntly told him: "Destination Angola."

But he added: "Will accept conference on board Santa Maria with U.S. authorities or any other than Portuguese or Spanish (Salazar's close ally)."

Set Hearing Date On Disposal Issue

The State Sanitary Water Board will conduct a hearing February 15 with the New Oxford Municipal Authority to discuss the authority's request that the outfall pipe from the sewage disposal plant be completed as approved by the state.

The authority will be represented by an attorney and member of the authority. The scheduled inspection of the route that the outfall pipe would take was postponed Saturday.

The next regular meeting of the Municipal Authority will be held February 9.

DELAY HEARING

Continuance for 30 days of a hearing scheduled in York Tuesday on a December 5 petition by District Attorney Frank B. Boyle to revoke the private detective license of Constable Clair L. Bollinger, Spring Grove, was granted by Judge George W. Atkins. Bollinger was convicted January 14 on five charges of extortion and false pretense. Bollinger formerly operated an office here.

NAMED MANAGER

Louis Sonnenberg, assistant manager and pharmacist at the local Rea and Derick store for the last 15 months, has been named manager of the Rea and Derick store at State College, it was announced today. Sonnenberg, who has been with the Rea and Derick organization since 1955, will assume his new position Monday.

STOCKS SAG

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market sagged irregularly early this afternoon in active trading. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was off .20 at 230.40 with industrials down .20, rails up .30, and utilities down .30.

COMMITTEES OF RED CROSS ARE ASSIGNED

Committee assignments for 1961 were announced by the Rev. Charles E. Held, chapter chairman, at the January meeting of the board of directors of the Adams County Chapter of the Red Cross Wednesday evening at the public assistance offices on Chambersburg St.

At the same session plans for the upcoming March fund drive in the county outside of the Gettysburg Community Chest area were outlined by Campaign Chairman Luther W. Ritter of Littlestown. "Our prospects for reaching our $3,500 goal this year are better now than at any time in the last two years," he told the board as he described preparations for the campaign.

Plans were made for a refresher course in first aid for Red Cross nurses' aides with Mrs. LeRoy H. Winebrenner, volunteer services chairman, and Mrs. Peggy P. Hill, executive secretary, in charge of preparations.

LIST OF CHAIRMEN

The possibility of establishing a blood bank at the Warner Hospital was discussed briefly and that proposal together with blood program activities of the county chapter will be studied.

Report Accident With $300 Damage

Borough police reported an accident in the Warner Hospital parking lot Wednesday evening which caused about $300 damage.

The report said that Norman Yingling, 27, of 316 York St., driving a Rambler taxicab, made a right turn around the corner of the hospital driveway, and his right front fender hit the left front fender and bumper of a Chevrolet station wagon entering the rear of the hospital. The station wagon was driven by William Rock, 23, Mont Alto, and owned by the Waynesboro Construction Co.

Damage was estimated at $150 to each vehicle.

Three Prisoners And Wife Of One To Face Charges Of Smuggling Rope Into Jail

STATE POINTS SCHOOL FLAWS AT FAIRFIELD

Results of state audits of the records of the Fairfield Joint School District and the three member districts that comprise it were made public today with lists of recommendations for correction of improvement of procedures for all of the districts.

A letter from Deputy Attorney General Martin H. Brackbill explains that the audits were made under the state fiscal code as interpreted by a recent opinion of the attorney general of Pennsylvania. The audit covers local school districts as far as receipts and expenditures of state funds are concerned. Copies of the audit go to the governor, the Department of Public Instruction and the local boards.

In the case of the joint school district 12 recommendations are made. There are two recommendations for Fairfield borough, four for Hamiltonban and four for Liberty Twp.

LACK BONDS, REPORTS

In the case of the jointure, the audit found no surety bonds are carried on the board secretary or treasurer; that some board minutes were not signed by the secretary; that the treasurer does not make monthly reports to the board; that no evidence was found of receipt of merchandise or of verification of mathematical accuracy of invoices; that some departments of the budget were overexpended without shifting of funds as provided by law; that the bank which is the school district depository did not furnish bond or collateral and does not render monthly statements; that complete information is not available on the solicitation and acceptance of bids on construction work and that adequate books of account are not maintained.

Specific recommendations made by the state include establishment of a payroll journal and payroll checking account; inclusion of dates and classifications in journal entries, prompt payment of bills to take advantage of discounts, recording of each check separately, retention of accounting worksheets, retention of voided checks, inclusion in the minutes of complete information on bids and bidders and notation that public notice was given of (Continued On Page 2)

WIFE IN PLOT

Teeter said the inspection and questioning disclosed that a thin rope was let down from a cell across the wall to Mrs. Amann, who in turn tied the 75-foot length of heavy rope to it to be drawn into the cell. Coffee and other food were delivered in the same manner.

Amann, formerly of Hunters-town where he planned to establish a museum, is in jail on a 60-day to one-year sentence on a bad check charge, and is awaiting sentence in a Philadelphia court on a charge of taking relics without permission from a Philadelphia Sons of Union Veterans Camp.

Ross, according to jail records, has completed a sentence on a burglary charge resulting from breaking into the Five Star Restaurant and a home in the southern part of the county and was scheduled for release when his costs were paid. Hertz, according to the same record, was awaiting parole to be taken to another county for action on a charge there.

STUDENT WILL SPEAK HERE ON YOUTH SUNDAY

Memorial Evangelical United Brethren Church has announced its plans for the celebration of Youth Week which begins Sunday.

Annual Meeting At Christ Lutheran

The annual congregational dinner meeting was held Wednesday evening at the Christ Lutheran Church here at 6 o'clock in the Sunday School room. The pastor, the Rev. Dr. Robert L. Koons, presided. The dinner was served by the United Lutheran Church Women of the church.

During the business session, six persons were elected to the church council for a one-year term and six others for two-year terms. Those named for one year include: Carl A. Baum, the Rev. Dr. Howard N. Bream, Dr. Raymond F. Sheely, Charles W. Wolf and Robert G. Zeigler, re-elected, and Dr. Russell S. Rosenberger.

Those named for two years include: E. Douglas Danfelt, A. E. B. Jones Jr., Edwin L. Minter and Paul J. Reaver, re-elected, and John E. Keller and Harry W. Pfanz.

Machines Balk At Courthouse Today

Work at the courthouse came to a standstill for a short period this morning in some offices.

Stenographers started complaining that electric typewriters wouldn't write and adding machines wouldn't add. Investigation disclosed that a wire providing current to the machines had burned out. It was replaced. The loss of electricity to the machines did not affect the current supplied to lights and for most offices it was some minutes before anyone thought about a power failure as a cause for the nonoperating machines.

QUARTERLY MEETING

The Gettysburg Civic Nursing Association will hold its quarterly meeting Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the YWCA.

Art materials and supplies, playing cards, stamp and coin collectors' books and supplies. Bookmark. Open till 1 p.m.

MISS TAYNTON

the members of the Youth Fellowship and the Youth Choir will present the anthem entitled "We Are Building." The message for the morning will be delivered by Miss Sheila Taynton, a Senior from Lebanon Valley College, Annville, one of the seven colleges supported by the Evangelical United Brethren Church.

Miss Taynton is a native of Falls Church, Va., and is a member of the Sleepy Hollow EUB Church there. She is majoring in sociology with an intended vocation in Christian education. She is particularly interested in the study of the church's relevance to social problems. Among her many college activities are membership

Kennedy To Greet Fliers At Andrews Field Friday

WASHINGTON (AP)—The two American fliers released from Soviet custody are expected to reach Washington Friday afternoon, then on their arrival at Andrews Air Force Base.

The fliers, whose freedom from seven months of Soviet detention was announced so dramatically by Kennedy at a televised news conference Wednesday night, had originally been expected to get to Washington this afternoon.

But the White House announced today that the two men—Capt. Freeman B. Olmstead and John R. McKone—will spend the night at Goose Bay, Labrador, where they arrived this morning, instead of flying on to Washington, and into a predicted snow storm.

WIVES ALREADY THERE

Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary, said McKone and Olmstead landed at Goose Bay at 8:35 a.m. EST.

Present prospects are that they will land at nearby Andrews Air Force Base some time afternoon Friday.

Wives of the two men were at Andrews around noon today from Topeka, Kan., the home of McKone.

They will remain at the air base tonight.

Salinger said an Air Force physician accompanied the wives on their flight in an Air Force plane. Mrs. Olmstead, he said, expects to have a baby in another month or so.

Salinger said that Kennedy plans to greet McKone and Olmstead at the airport, where they may make a brief statement but will not hold any interviews.

McKone and Olmstead are the only known survivors of the U.S. RB47 reconnaissance plane which the Russians shot down over the Barents Sea last July 1.

The Rev. Mr. Held told the board of the luncheon he attended January 9 in Washington, D. C., as the guest of Gen. Alfred Grunther and his staff at the national Red Cross headquarters.

GIVING FIRST AID

Reports presented showed the home service department handled 139 office calls in November and 185 in December involving 24 active servicemen, 13 veterans and 16 civilian families. Eight home visits were made and 15 verifications were secured on data for emergency leaves for servicemen.

It was announced a first aid class is being held at the state police barracks and that a first aid class will be started February 14 in Littlestown.

Mrs. Winebrenner said a dozen nurses' aides are serving regularly as emergency "fill ins" at the Warner Hospital and others helped with giving Asian flu shots at Gettysburg College twice recently. Other reports showed 21 blood donors were supplied in the last two months and the Junior Red Cross met its holiday commitments at New Cumberland Army Depot.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—John Shaffer, 45, of Pittsburgh's Hazelwood section, who was struck by a railroad engine at the Union Railroad Yards last Friday, died today in West Penn Hospital.

GHS Will Play At Chambersburg This Evening

Tonight the Gettysburg High cagers will wind up their first half race in the South Penn League by meeting Chambersburg on the Trojans' floor. The game was postponed from last Friday because of the snow storm.

Chambersburg, pre-season favorite to win the league title, has already yielded the first half honors to Carlisle. The Trojans have a tall, experienced outfit and will be a tough foe for the Warriors on the Trojan court.

The junior varsities meet at 6:45. Delone Catholic also finishes first half play in the Central Penn Catholic League tonight at Lebanon. McDevitt of Harrisburg has clinched the first half title. The Squires are 2-2 in league play while Lebanon is also 2-2.

Sponsors Bill To End Death Penalty

In a letter to Governor Lawrence Wednesday, Assemblyman Francis Worley asked that all executions be stayed in Pennsylvania until adjournment of this session of the legislature "since this body is now actively promoting legislation to abolish capital punishment in Pennsylvania."

Worley was co-sponsor with three other members of the House, including the speaker, of a bill introduced at Harrisburg early today which would abolish capital punishment for crimes in this state. Worley said he believes there is no crime for which the death penalty should be imposed, that capital punishment is not a deterrent, that there would be opportunity to clear a man later proved innocent; that death is a penalty inflicted only upon the poor and that a life sentence effectively removes the criminal from society.

WILL ADDRESS SCOUT DINNER

JAMES H. GELWICKS

James H. Gelwicks, national director of activities and special events, will address the 44th annual dinner meeting of the York-Adams Area Boy Scout Council Tuesday in the Yorktowne Hotel, York.

Gelwicks entered Boy Scout work in 1912. After minor assignments, he was named coordinator of the world jamboree in Canada in 1955, England in 1957, Philippines in 1959 and the 1960 jubilee jamboree in Colorado Springs, Colo.

Silver Beaver awards will be presented to four Scouts. Eight district statutes will also be awarded. Austin Rising will be the toastmaster.

Stitchery Design Topic For Meeting

Mrs. Helen D. Tunison, extension home economist, has announced the first of two meetings on "Creative Design in Stitchery" to be held for leaders and assistants of the various homemakers groups in the county. The leader and assistant will then present the program to members of their clubs.

The first session will be held Thursday, February 2, from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the West St. branch of the Gettysburg National Bank.

The leaders will be taught basic decorative stitches for wall hangings, blouses, belts and table linens. Those attending are to bring their own lunch, a collection of twine, yarns, strings and embroidery floss, pins, an embroidery hoop, colored pieces of cloth in various sizes, a black crayon, pencil, eraser, ruler, shears and either a large tapestry needle or a large yarn needle.

CHANGE MEETING DATE

The meeting of the agricultural business and management committee of the Adams County Agricultural Extension Association, originally scheduled for January 30, will be held instead on Friday evening, February 3, at 7:30 o'clock in the West St. branch of the Gettysburg National Bank. Fred Hughes, farm management specialist from Pennsylvania State University, will conduct a discussion on finance costs, materials, labor and management ability as they relate to net income.

A July wedding is planned.

Calaman—Smith

Mr. and Mrs. Kurvin Smith, Thomasville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Nancy, to Charles A. Calaman Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Calaman Sr., Seven Valleys R. 1. The bride-elect, a 1960 graduate of Spring Grove District Senior High School, is employed by the Gettysburg Shoe Company East Berlin. The prospective bridegroom, who is employed by Jacobus Plastics, attended the same school.

Wentz—Walker

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Walker, New Oxford, R. 1, announce the engagement of their daughter, Judy Ann, to James M. Wentz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Wentz, 353 York St. No date has been set for the wedding.

MISS JANETH HAY

home of the bride immediately following the ceremony. Afterwards they left for their wedding trip through the South for three to four days. They will reside with the bride's parents.

The bride is a 1957 graduate of Gettysburg High School and a graduate from a two-year medical secretarial course at Elizabethtown College in 1959, and is employed by Drs. Charles Weaver and Donald Dunkle, Manheim, as a medical secretary. The groom is a graduate of Stowe Twp. High School, McKees Rocks, in 1957, and is now in his senior year at Juniata College, Huntingdon, majoring in mathematics.

Out-of-town guests were from Coraopolis, Manheim and Mifflintown.

FIREMEN CALLED

Gettysburg firemen were called shortly before noon to a fire in a partition at the home of Willard "Jake" Weikert, 43 Breckenridge St. Firemen said they believed the blaze may have started from an overheated chimney.

4-H SENATE MEETING

The Adams County 4-H Senate will meet Thursday evening, February 2, at 8 o'clock at the West St. branch of the Gettysburg National Bank to plan for the 1961 4-H county-wide program. Associate county agent John D. Nangle said games and refreshments will follow the meeting.

Weddings

Beeler—Evansky

Miss Doris Virginia Evansky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Evansky, Carlisle R. 6, became the bride of Kenneth Lee Beeler, Mt. Holly Springs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Beeler, Orrtanna, on December 31 at 2 p.m. in the First Lutheran Church, Carlisle.

Rev. Charles T. Sardeson performed the double-ring ceremony. Miss Mary Swartz, Carlisle, sang. Mrs. James Moyer, Basin Hill Heights, was organist.

Miss Rene Sholter, Carlisle, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Ruth Evansky, sister of the bride; Miss Dolores Keck, Carlisle R. 5, and Miss Donna Shugart, Mt. Holly Springs. Flower girls were Betty Evansky, sister of the bride, and Regina Corman, cousin of the bride.

Jerry Cline, Mt. Holly Springs, was best man. Robert and Ronald Beeler, Orrtanna, brothers of the bridegroom, and David Fry, Carlisle R. 6, were ushers. James Sadler was ring bearer.

A reception in the church social hall followed the ceremony. The couple took a short wedding trip and are now at home at 230 N. Baltimore Ave., Mt. Holly Springs.

The bride is a graduate of South Middleton Township High School, class of 1960, and of the Central Pennsylvania Business School. She is employed by the Bedford Shoe Company.

The bridegroom attended Carlisle High School and is employed by the A. H. Shughart and Son Trucking Company, Mt. Holly Springs. Prior to his marriage he lived with his grandparents, the A. H. Shughart, Mt. Holly Springs.

Haulman—Cromwell

The First Evangelical Lutheran Church, Chambersburg, was the scene of a wedding Saturday afternoon at 2:30 when Constance Mary Cromwell became the bride of Larry William Haulman. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Roland W. Renkel.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Cromwell, Chambersburg. She is a graduate of the Chambersburg High School, class of 1956, and the Lebanon Valley College, class of 1960. She is a teacher of vocal music at the Scotland School for Veterans' Children.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Haulman, Chambersburg. He is a graduate of the Chambersburg High School, class of 1957, and is employed by the L. E. Smith News Agency, Gettysburg.

Villarreal—Bobo

Barbara E. Bobo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Bobo, York Springs, and Elias Villarreal, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Elias Villarreal, Runge, Texas, were married January 9 at Frederick by the Rev. E. Sparke. They are living at the bride's home.

Sanders—McGlaughlin

Miss Susan Elaine McGlaughlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McGlaughlin, Emmitsburg, and James Henry Sanders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sanders, Emmitsburg, were married Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in the Elias Lutheran Church, Emmitsburg. Rev. Philip Bower, pastor of the couple, performed the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal bridal gown of white tulle with a fitted bodice, long tapered sleeves and a chapel skirt with an insert of rose Aleon lace. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of cultured pearls. She carried a white Bible, a gift of the groom, topped with sweetheart roses and white carnations.

Mrs. Clarence Ancarrow, Emmitsburg, classmate of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a street-length dress of red tulle with a fitted bodice and full skirt. The three-quarter-length sleeves ended in pleated ruffles. She wore matching accessories and carried a bouquet of Marnie carnations.

Miss Martha Baumgardner, classmate of the bride, and Miss Karen Eisenhower, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore pine green dresses identical to the matron of honor and carried shower bouquets of Marnie carnations.

David Sanders, Emmitsburg, brother of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Dennis McGlaughlin, brother of the bride, and Wayne Sanders, brother of the groom, both of Emmitsburg.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. McGlaughlin wore a royal blue acetate capilion dress with black accessories and a corsage of red and white carnations. Sanders wore a navy blue rayon crepe dress with a corsage of red and white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the Lutheran Church parish hall. For the wedding trip to an unannounced destination the bride wore an orchid sheath dress with black accessories and the corsage from atop her Bible. Upon their return the couple will reside at the home of the groom.

The bride is a graduate of Emmitsburg High School, class of 1959. The groom graduated from the same high school with the class of 1947 and is a member of the Emmitsburg Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Out-of-town guests were from

STATE POINTS

presentation of a proposed budget.

In many instances it is noted that recommendations are in line with provisions of the state school code.

"CLOSED" SCHOOL USED

Failure to bond the secretary and to receive monthly reports from the treasurer are faults found in the examination of the Fairfield borough school district records. Transfer of funds within the budget to cover expenditures is required by law, it is pointed out, and another comment notes that no bond was required of the depository and monthly reports are not received from the depository.

The audit turned up the fact that the Fairfield district claimed and received state reimbursement for a closed school formerly contained in a building "presently housing" a school. "This building does not fall within the definition of a closed school," the audit notes. "We recommend that this school be deleted from future requests for reimbursements," the report continues. More complete minutes are requested also.

The faults found with Liberty and Hamilton Twp. school records were similar in most instances. In both cases it was noted that disbursements were not supported by school orders and only one signature appeared on checks. Three are required by state law.

INCOMPLETE MINUTES

In both townships, also, it was noted that no surety bond is required of the board secretary and that the treasurer does not give monthly reports. Failure to handle property departmental budget expenditures is noted also. The state found out, too, that the depository was not required to give bond or monthly reports. Coding of checks, obtaining of authenticated duplicate deposit slips and retention of voided checks is recommended in both townships.

In the case of Hamilton Twp. it is noted that minutes are not complete with regard to majority votes on temporary loans and failed to show the designation of the depository. Also in that township, the state found that checks are signed in blank.

In the case of Liberty Twp. it was noted that board minutes fail to show that public notice with regard to school budget presentation was carried out.

The audit covered the school year which ended July 6, 1958.

RB47 Converted From Combat B47

WASHINGTON (AP)—The RB47 plane shot down by a Soviet fighter last July in the Barents Sea is a reconnaissance version of the combat B47.

To convert the six-jet bomber into an RB47, all bomb-carrying and much of the defensive equipment is removed. Then the plane is packed with long range cameras, mapping cameras and electronic equipment for checking on locations and frequencies of aircraft detection systems.

The altitude for a RB47 is given officially as "over 40,000 feet." Its top speed is a little over 600 miles per hour.

VEHICLES SIDESWIPE

A taxi cab, operated by David M. Cox, 23, Aspers R. 1, and a truck, owned by the United Gas Improvement firm and operated by William C. Phelabaum, 46, Carlisle R. 1, sideswiped in Carlisle Tuesday causing minor damage, Carlisle police reported. The two vehicles were traveling in opposite directions and skidded together on the icy street, police said.

SCHOOL REGISTRATION

The supervising principal of the Lower Adams School System at New Oxford has announced that registration for beginners for the 1961-62 school term has started.

In order to be eligible for admission, pupils must be six years of age prior to February 1, 1962. Parents who have not yet registered their children may do so at the New Oxford Elementary School or by phoning MA 4-4571.

PRESBYTERY NOTES IKE'S COMING HERE

HARRISBURG—The Presbytery of Carlisle recorded on Tuesday an expression of "gratification in the coming into our area, as a private citizen, of President Dwight D. Eisenhower" and of honor "in the fact that he has chosen to make his permanent residence in Gettysburg" and his plans to unite soon with the Gettysburg Presbyterian Church.

The action was taken at a stated meeting of the church judicatory, which includes Adams County, conducted at the Calvary Presbyterian Church of Harrisburg. It went on to note a conviction that "his sincere concern for the peace of the world has had much to do with the fact that we have been spared the tragedy of way through these recent years" and closed with a prayer for "God's blessing upon him . . . and his family . . . as he lays down his burden of heavy responsibility."

Six ministers and ruling elders were elected commissioners to the 1961 General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. which is to be held in Buffalo, N. Y., beginning May 17, and eight ministers and ruling elders as delegates to the 1961 meeting of the Synod of Pennsylvania at Grove City in June.

General Assembly commissioners are: Rev. J. Charles McKirachan, Pine Street Presbyterian Church, Harrisburg; Rev. John C. Talbot, First Church, Steelton; Rev. Duncan K. MacPherson, Mechanicsburg Church; Elder James McDowell, Mercersburg Church; Elder George Bard, McConnellsburg United Church, and Elder C. W. Fogelsanger, Shippensburg Church.

Synod delegates are: Synod moderator, Rev. Morton G. Glise, Paxton Church, Paxtang, Harrisburg; Rev. Eugene H. McCahan, Lost Creek Church in McAllisterville and Port Royal Church; Rev. Joseph M. Woods Jr., executive secretary of the United Churches of Greater Harrisburg and Dauphin County; Rev. Ralph B. Snyder, St. Andrew's Church in Lebanon; Elder Donald Orner, Calvary Church, Harrisburg; Elder Edward Sheets, Duncannon Church; Elder Arthur Gordon, Lower Marsh Creek Church, Gettysburg, and Elder John Sheaffer, Convent Church, Harrisburg.

OTHER ACTIONS

The Presbytery elected Rev. Walter C. Hales Jr., Christ Church, Lebanon, as permanent clerk and editor of "Presbytery Echoes"; Rev. Robert B. Jacoby, Waynesboro Church, as chairman of the Presbytery Council, and Elder David Baldwin, Camp Hill Church, as member of the Presbytery Council.

Three ministers were enrolled as members of the judicatory:

Rev. Walter Bruggeman, Lebanon VA Hospital Protestant chaplain; Rev. Thomas W. Nissley, pastor-elect of the Mercersburg Church; and Rev. J. Paul Burkhardt II, director of youth work for the Pennsylvania Council of Churches. Mrs. John C. Talbot, president of the Presbytery Society of Carlisle Presbyterian Church and wife of the Steelton church pastor, reported that the 4,700 members of the 59 Presbytery missionary societies and woman's associations exceeded by $8,686 the 1960 pledge goals of $32,500 for the denominational mission work at home and abroad and for the Board of Christian Education.

The delegates approved the organization and purposes of the recently-chartered Presbyterian Apartments, Inc., a domestic, non-

PRESIDENT IS PUSHING AREA AID MEASURE

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has urged Congress to promptly pass the depressed areas bill—and make good one of his first campaign promises.

"The number of areas of substantial and consistent unemployment is now one hundred," Kennedy said Wednesday in letters to Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson and Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn, D-Tex.

"In addition," Kennedy added, "there are many places where chronic underemployment is predominant."

SPREAD ABOUT

"This condition is not confined to our urban metropolitan centers, but is spread across rural communities and represents a serious handicap to our national economic health . . ."

"Private initiative alone is clearly insufficient to accomplish permanent improvement. Nor is it any longer possible for state and local governments to carry the full burden. I believe there must be a cooperative effort in which the federal government joins with private industry and local and state governments in a maximum effort . . ."

Kennedy strongly endorsed the recommendations of a depressed areas task force headed by Sen. Paul H. Douglas, D-Ill. Many of those recommendations are embodied in a pending Senate bill by Douglas.

FEDERAL LOAN FUNDS

The Douglas bill would provide about $390 million in federal funds for loans, technical help and federal grants to foster the establishment and expansion of industries in areas of high unemployment.

During the West Virginia primary campaign last spring, Kennedy promised West Virginians that if elected president he would double surplus food packages to relief recipients. He did that in his first working day as president.

He also promised to ask Congress for a depressed areas bill similar to the bills vetoed by President Eisenhower.

FIRST LIVE CONFERENCE MAKES HISTORY

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Communications history was made Wednesday night as President Kennedy conducted the first presidential news conference before live television cameras.

The President took on all questions posed by a large room full of reporters for more than 30 minutes.

It was more than fascinating viewing; it was an important forward step in public enlightenment. We should be grateful to the President. Surely it is no easy task to face several hundred reporters and live TV cameras and be ready with the best answer to any question thrown out.

QUICK SHIFT

"The Aquanauts," CBS' undersea adventure series, demonstrated Wednesday night the easiest, quickest way to dispatch one hero and take on a new one. Ron Ely made his debut in place of Keith Larsen as one of the two skin-diving principals.

As the two walked from the ocean, co-star Jeremy Slate casually mentioned that his former buddy had been suddenly called back into the Navy for two years' duty.

"I just got out," replied the replacement. And away they went.

HITCHCOCK STYLE

This week's interlude on NBC's Barbara Stanwyck Show, "Dear Charlie," was an ironic and light-hearted little tale of homicide worthy of a spot in the Hitchcock lineup — except that Hitchcock

Says Extra Steps Taken For Bill

PITTSBURGH (AP)—An official of the Pittsburgh area Council of Churches says approval of liquor sales in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia hotels and restaurants "would only be an opening wedge for taverns to be given the same privilege."

The Rev. Dr. Benedict Williams, chairman of the council's Public Affairs Committee, also said Wednesday extraordinary steps are being taken to push a bill through the State Legislature permitting the sales in hotels and restaurants.

Dr. Williams, rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in suburban Sewickley, said "someone has pushed the panic button" in increasing the efforts to get the bill passed.

PILOT DEAD, 1 IS MISSING IN PLANE CRASH

GIBBSTOWN, N. J. (AP)—A Pennsylvania Air National Guard officer was dead today and another missing after their F89 Scorpion jet fighter crashed near this southern New Jersey community. The aircraft narrowly missed the E. I. du Pont Co. textile plant here.

Killed in the crash Wednesday night shortly after the plane took off from Philadelphia International Airport was First Lt. Gordon T. Heeke of Somerdale, N. J., the radar observer.

Reported missing was Maj. John W. Prout, 38, of Bridgeport, Pa., the pilot. Coast Guard boats searched for him Wednesday night. Some 50 men combed the banks of the river overnight. Helicopters joined the search today.

TAKEN FROM ICY WATERS

A tugboat took Heeke from the icy waters of the Delaware River. But he was dead on arrival at the Underwood Memorial Hospital in Woodbury, N. J.

Hospital attendants said the dying due to asphyxiation by death certificate listed Heeke as drowning. His body was sent to McGuire Air Force Base where an autopsy will be performed.

Both officers were members of the 111th Fighter Group of the Pennsylvania Air National Guard. Lt. Col. Joe Delay, commander of the 111th Fighter Group, said both officers apparently had bailed out before the plane crashed into a yard at the Du Pont plant, scattering wreckage over a quarter of a mile.

tering wreckage over a quarter of a mile.

MUSHROOM CLOUD

A guard at the plant said he saw a flash "like a mushroom cloud" and then flames.

A spokesman for the firm said the plane missed a factory building by 100 feet. No plant personnel were injured. No plant property was damaged.

The explosion caused by the crash rocked a large area. Residents three miles away reported that their windows rattled. The plane dug a crater 150 feet by 100 feet wide in a spot just 100 feet from the factory building.

One of the men, who said he witnessed the crash, Homer Holmes, of Mount Laurel, N. J., looked up and said: "My God, look at that! He's on fire!"

Flames shot high into the air and the wreckage burned for a lengthy time.

The Du Pont plant here lies just across the river from Essington, Pa. It manufactures chemical bases for dacron and other materials. The spokesman said the nature of the materials was not extremely inflammable.

Heeke is survived by his widow, Ruth, four children, and his father, William T., who lives in Richmond, Va. He worked for RCA.

Americans smoked 470,000 million cigarettes and 6,000 million cigars in 1958.

8-Inch Snow Covers County;

Plows Busy; 11 Deaths In State;

The heaviest snow storm of the year blanketed Adams county to a depth ranging between six and eight inches at noon today. More snow was forecast for tonight.

Snow began falling shortly after 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon. All snow-removal equipment of the local state highway office, with the exception of the big graders, were sent out Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock by J. William Kendlehart, Superintendent, and have been clearing the highways continuously since that time.

Snow, Ice Aid Sportsmen But

Hamper Drivers: Chicago — Winter sportsmen found favorable weather in most of the northern half of the nation today.

There was an abundance of snow and ice for skiers, skaters and tobogganers, yet the same condition gave trouble to highway departments in some states.

The playgrounds for those who like to relax in the sun and sand were fair but a bit cool, Florida reporting lows of 54 at Jacksonville, 58 at Tampa and 60 at Miami, and California showing 50 at Los Angeles and San Diego and 45 at Fresno.

Senate Passes U. S. Fleet's

Air Defense Bill: The senate passed unanimously and sent to the White House today legislation authorizing a $300,000,000 expenditure for modernizing the fleet's air defense.

The chamber acted within an hour after the senate naval committee had approved the legislation.

Witnesses at the hearing testified that increased protection against air attack had been shown to be necessary because of lessons learned from the European war.

Dorsey Dougherty Dies; Merchant Since 1882: Dorsey Dougherty, Baltimore Street, well-known Gettysburg business man, died in the Warner hospital Sunday morning at 10:15 o'clock from a complication of diseases. He had been a patient in the hospital for 27 days.

The deceased was a native of Adams county, a son of the late Cornelius and Elizabeth (Gehr) Dougherty. He attended the public schools of Gettysburg after which he went to Reisterstown, Maryland, where he worked for a time.

Fascists Make Last Stand To

Guard Bengasi: Britain's desert troops were reported in battle contact today with Italian defenders of Derna, Libya, where a swashbuckling Connecticut Yankee planted the Stars and Stripes in the war on Barbary pirates 136 years ago.

Derna, 95 miles west of fallen Tobruk, is the gateway to the Mediterranean sea coast plateau en route to Bengasi. Observers in Cairo predicted fascist Marshall Rodolfo Graziani might make a "last stand" defense on the plateau to guard his base at Bengasi, 170 miles to the west.

Deanery NCCW Holds Meet

At Bonneville: The quarterly meeting of Conewago Deanery of the National Council of Catholic Women was held in St. Joseph's Hall, Bonneville, on Sunday afternoon with 100 persons present.

After the transaction of routine business, Miss Annie K. Smith, from Conewago, read a paper on "The Thoughts and Inspirations Received from the Day of Recollection," held in December. She quoted briefly the principal points from each conference. Four of the young members of the Bonneville choir then sang "Ave Marie."

Today's Talk

HOW I GET ALONG WITH PEOPLE

I get along very well, and happily, with all my friends and associates. This is a much more remarkable statement than it, at first, would seem.

The fact is that I am not any too easy to get along with!

I learned this truth a long time ago, and decided I would make my friends a very glad and glorious asset. This is the way I do it. I recognize the faults and failings of my friends as akin to mine own, and then I dress myself up in the clothes of an explorer and hunt for the good and lovely qualities in those whom I desire as my friends.

It works wonderfully. It is surprising how little time it takes to cement a warm and enduring friendship, and to make that friendship one of the cherished possessions of this life.

I get along with people by playing their game much of the time, by measuring my own likes and dislikes against theirs. Often I go out of my way to give others something I would very much like to have—and to behold I gain in inner joy myself.

I do little criticizing. I leave that for someone much wiser than I.

But when I have the opportunity to say something I think will spark a smile or two, I take advantage of it.

I envy no man his good luck. In my heart I say "God bless him."

In looking back over my own life, I am made aware that luck has sprinkled its stars all along my way.

I get along with people by loving everything good, kind and generous that is within them.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Ruts"

FEMININE INSTRUCTIONS

When I was but a little fyke

My mother said to me:

"Remember what you must be like

When you go out to teal

Please do the very best you can

To be a little gentleman.

Don't cross your legs or twist about

And never let your tongue stick out;

Be not too bold, or not too shy,

And when you're spoken to,

reply."

Though very small, I envied then,

When I went out to teal,

The care-free grown-up gentlemen

And longed like them to be.

Thought I, whenever they go out

They've not a thing to think about.

They've not been warned of this or that,

Told how to walk and wear a hat.

They do precisely as they please

At dinner parties, dances, teas.

Ah, me, how little then I knew;

How much I've lived to learn!

A woman does man's footsteps to

The sepulchre or urn.

I'm older grown and married now,

But still I am instructed how

To greet the people we shall meet

And what to drink and what to eat.

Her last instruction every night

Is: "Please behave and be polite!"

Mouth-To-Mouth

Action Saves Girl

HADDONFIELD, N. J. (AP)—

Katherine Dobbs, 12, suddenly went into a coma Wednesday and appeared to stop breathing.

Dr. William Griffey, of nearby Collingswood, the child's uncle, was called to the scene. So was the Rev. Joseph Hayden, assistant pastor of Christ the King Roman Catholic Church.

Working in relays, they and police officers Willard Schaub and John Nussbaumer administered mouth-to-mouth breathing for 45 minutes.

The girl was rushed to West Jersey Hospital where today she was described in critical condition "but holding her own." She was placed in a mechanical resuscitator. Attendants said a preliminary diagnosis showed she was suffering from a certain type of meningitis.

ROSS LEFFLER
NAMED TO POST
IN INTERIOR

By JOHN KOENIG JR.

Associated Press Special Service

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ross L. Leffler is happy about the new administration's decision to permit him to stay on indefinitely as acting assistant secretary of the interior for fish and wildlife.

An Eisenhower appointee, Leffler, who left a high-ranking executive job with U. S. Steel, has been in Washington since Jan. 2, 1957.

Behind the scenes, a number of Leffler's friends have been working to have him kept on permanently.

WOULD CONTINUE
However, should he be replaced Leffler says he would go home to Pittsburgh and continue his interest in matters relating to conservation.

Leffler has praise for the fish and wildlife personnel with whom he has worked in the last four years.

He prefers to think of his own job as assistant secretary as non-political, the status enjoyed by the career men in the service.

STEEL TIES SEVERED
Leffler's ties with U. S. Steel have been severed, he said, because when he took the interior post he was nearing retirement.

So that leaves him, he added, with conservation and wildlife his principal interests.

One phase of his work here that has particularly interested him is how to restore shad in the Susquehanna River that winds through south and central Pennsylvania.

SHAD TRANSPORTED
During Leffler's tenure in the Interior Department, various studies have been made to determine the feasibility of transporting shad above the Conowingo Dam in Maryland and the other dams on the river in southern Pennsylvania. The studies are continuing.

Proposals include building fish ladders over the dams or fishways to serve as a by-pass around the individual dams, such as Conowingo.

"It takes quite a little time to get authentic data," Leffler told a newsman. "It took years to get enough information on the migration of salmon out in the northwest; we have a comparable problem here in the east with shad."

Former Pennsylvania Gov. George M. Leader has been mentioned as a possible successor to Leffler. Leader has admitted he was invited to discuss job possibilities with Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall but declined to comment on whether Leffler's job was the one that was offered him.

Bethlehem Issues Annual Report

NEW YORK (AP) — Bethlehem Steel Corp., the nation's second largest producer, today issues its 1960 annual report.

Directors will also declare a dividend for the first quarter of 1961.

For the first nine months of 1960 Bethlehem earned $93,979,141, equal to $1.96 a share. In the third quarter its earnings totaled only $12,436,106 or 24 cents a share.

Bethlehem paid out $2.40 a common share in dividends in 1960. Its fourth quarter earnings would have had to equal 44 cents a share to cover the 1960 dividend pay out.

"COLD WINTER'S NIGHT"

One winter's night as snowflakes fell . . . from out a somber sky . . . I sat before the fireplace . . . watching embers fly . . . away from all the ice and wind . . . that beat upon my door . . . in reverie I drifted . . . back to the days of yore . . . to other winter nights when youth . . . trudged through the freezing snow . . . in quest of worldly fortune . . . to stem the tides of woe . . . and as the charred logs crackled . . . and flames danced merrily . . . I heard voices calling . . . from the used-to-be . . . telling me come back, come back . . . stop time in its flight . . . then sadness brushed my aging heart . . . one cold winter's night.

Wednesday's Score
Gettysburg, 24; Faust, 21.

Gettysburg Junior High lost its fourth straight South Penn League game Wednesday evening when it dropped a hard fought 38-35 overtime decision to Faust at Chambersburg.

Jimmy Newman, who wound up with 19 points, hit the cords for seven goals in the second quarter for the Braves and led his team to an 18-13 half time advantage after the locals had trailed 4-2 at the end of the first period.

Faust rallied in the third period to knot the score and it was nip and tuck the rest of the way as the score was deadlocked at 30-30 at the end of the regulation time.

Howard Smith rammed through two goals and Dick Weaver one while Jim McClure added a pair of fouls for the Tigers in the overtime round. Gettysburg was limited to goals by Doug Bream and Charley Sleichter and a free toss by Newman.

Coach Carl Schoenborn's lads outshot their foe from the field 16 to 13, but Faust converted 12 of 19 fouls while the Braves made three in but five tries.

JAYVEES WIN

Don Bickel's Jayvees salvaged part of the evening by capturing the preliminary 34-21 to even their record at 2-2. Don Doaks looped nine points for the winners.

The Braves will meet Washington Township here Friday evening in another league doubleheader, the preliminary starting at 6:30.

Seeks To Clear Up
Middleweight Title

NEW YORK (AP) — Promoter Bill Fugazy said today he has begun negotiations for an outdoor fight in New York this summer to clear up the middleweight title muddle.

Fugazy, president of Feature Sports, Inc., said he already has discussed the situation with Paul Pender and Gene Fullmer, coholders of the world middleweight title. Pender, of Brookline, Mass., is recognized by New York, Massachusetts, Britain and Europe. Fullmer, of West Jordan, Utah, is the National Boxing Association champion.

Fugazy said he was interested at first in promoting the fight in early April. He said Fullmer told him he couldn't be ready that early because of his title defense against Sugar Ray Robinson in Las Vegas, March 4.

Littlestown, 49; Quincy, 22.

Greencastle, 45; Scotland, 41.

Littlestown took a two-game lead in its quest to retain its Adams Division title of the Adams-Franklin Basketball League by outclassing Quincy 77-39 at Littlestown Wednesday evening.

Jack Bream's Thunderbolts were in command all the way after taking a 19-10 lead in the first period and boosting their advantage to 38-18 at half time. The Bolts shot brilliantly from the field, sinking 35 of 71 shots. Quincy netted 15 of 59. The Littlestown outfit also led in rebounding 34-19. Four Bolts hit in double figures with Larry Weikert and Bob Benner ramming through 22 and 17, respectively. Gary Stoops topped the Spartans with 17 and Biesecker swished 15.

Snyder and Breighner each accounted for 10 points as the Littlestown junior varsity won the preliminary 49-22.

Greencastle took over the lead in the Franklin Division by turning back invading Scotland 47-34. The teams entered the game with identical records of 7-0.

Kramer's Champion
Tennis Play Opens

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Rookies

Andres Gimeno of Spain and Barry MacKay of the United States meet tonight at the Arena in the opening 1961 match here of Jack Kramer's world professional championships.

Kramer's touring professionals will be in Philadelphia both tonight and Friday night.

Two other singles matches are on tap tonight. Pancho Gonzales meets Alex Olmedo, 1959 Wimbledon champion, in the second match and Lew Hoad, two-time Wimbledon champion, faces Earl Buchholz of St. Louis in the final singles.

One doubles match is on tonight's card with Gonzales and Gimeno teaming against MacKay and Olmedo.

Says Pirates Can Win Pennant Again

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — Centerfielder Bill Virdon of the Pittsburgh Pirates thinks the world

champions can win the National League pennant again in the coming season.

"It's a challenge to do it again and we feel we can meet the challenge," Virdon said. "I don't know about three pennants but I think we should make it two. The Cardinals and Braves look to be the strongest opposition. They could cause a lot of trouble."

As for the World Series, Virdon said, "We've got a taste of that series money ($8,417.94 a man) and it was real good. We sure would like another helping."

"I feel great," Virdon added. "After winning that series I can hardly wait to get going again."

Virdon was one of the Pirates' stars in their 1960 World Series victory over the New Yankees.

Virdon attended the Hickok Pro Athlete of the year dinner in Rochester Monday night.

TEAMS RETAIN
LEAD IN TRIO
OF MAC RACES

Leads in the Middle Atlantic

Conference's three basketball races remained intact this week, with most teams taking a breather for examinations.

St. Joseph's minimized Gettysburg's title chances by defeating the Bullets, 85-76, in a university division contest. The victory gave St. Joseph's a 3-0 record in the conference. Temple is also the possessor of a 3-0 MAC log while LaSalle continues to set the space with four victories and no defeats.

Susquehanna was the only northern college division team to meet a conference opponent last week. The Crusaders traveled to Westminster, Md., where they were turned back by Western Maryland, 74-72. The loss was the second in seven conference games for fourth-ranked Susquehanna.

MORAVIAN LEADER

Out in front in the northern college division is Moravian with a 6-0 record. Albright and Hofstra are tied for second, each with a record of six wins and one defeat.

Western Maryland's victory over Susquehanna bolstered the Green Terror's hold on first place in the southern college division. Western Maryland has a record of five victories and one defeat, while second place Drexel is three and one in a race that is still up for grabs.

Pennsylvania Military College took a pair of decisions from Swarthmore and Johns Hopkins last week to move into sixth place in the southern college division.

BEARS CREEP TO
2 POINTS OF 2ND

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Hershey Bears, one of the lowest scoring teams in the American Hockey League, may get there on defense and good goal tending if they can't do it with goals.

There, in this case, means second place in the AHL standings, for the pace-setting Springfield Indians appear pretty well out of reach. The Bears today were only two points behind the Cleveland Barons after a 3-1 victory Wednesday night over the second-place Cleveland club. It was due largely to a nifty and nery performance by Bobby Perreault in the nets.

Perreault stopped a shot with his forehead and took a four-stitch cut during the first period. But he came back to make 30 saves and just missed a shutout when Billy Sutherland beat him in the third period. As a result, Bobby's goals-against average was reduced to 2.0 for 15 games, close behind the 2.77 for 47 games by Springfield's Marcel Paille.

GOOD GOAL TENDING

Ray Kinasewich, Marc Reaume and Mike Nykoluk scored the three goals that lifted the Bears' total to 135 for 45 games.

The last-place Providence Reds also got a good goal tending job from rookie Ed Giacomin, who replaced Don Simmons two weeks ago and beat the Rochester Americans 6-2 in a weather-delayed game. The Reds didn't get started until two hours late because their flight from Quebec had been delayed nearly eight hours. But they started fast, scoring three times in the first nine minutes. Ray Ross scored two goals to lead the Reds.

Schedule 318 Night
Tilts In Senior Loop

CINCINNATI (AP) — The National

League's baseball players are in for more night work than ever before.

The official schedule, made public Wednesday, calls for 318 night games, four more than the previous high of 314 during the 1960 season.

The season-opening games on April 11 will have Chicago at Cincinnati, St. Louis at Milwaukee, Pittsburgh at San Francisco and Philadelphia at Los Angeles. The game at Los Angeles will be the first night contest.

The "second" openers will be a bit broken up by reason of two Eastern clubs — Philadelphia and Pittsburgh — starting the season on the West Coast. Chicago will have its home opener against Milwaukee on April 14 and Cincinnati will be at St. Louis for the Cards' opener that night.

Philadelphia and Pittsburgh won't open at home until April 18. The Phils will entertain Milwaukee in a night game and Chicago will be at Pittsburgh for a day contest.

Los Angeles will be the busiest night performers at home with 60 games under the lights.

PENNSY LOSES $7 MILLION IN '60

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Pennsylvania Railroad reports it lost $7,819,122 last year, including $2,630,798 in December.

The December loss, said the railroad, reflects effects of severe snowstorms and extreme cold which increased operating costs and reduced revenues. The weather reduces revenues resulting from curtailment of industrial production.

The railroad said in a statement the 1960 earnings were affected adversely by a declining national economy during the last six months, and by the 12-day strike in September of the firm's maintenance workers. The strike shut-down service.

Gross revenues for 1960, the railroad reported, dipped to $843,705,224 from $887,683,858 in 1959. Despite increases in wages and costs of materials and supplies, the firm said, operating expenses in 1960 were reduced by $28,795,478 to $698,677,208.

1,134 NON-AG JOBS FOUND IN THIS DISTRICT

The State Bureau of Employment Security found 252,147 non-agricultural jobs for Pennsylvania workers in 1960, it was announced today by Richard P. Keagle, manager of the Gettysburg Employment Service office.

Keagle said the comparable job placement figure for 1959 was 257,799. He added that non-agricultural placements in the Gettysburg office area for 1960 totaled 1,134. This compared with the 1,093 in 1959.

The bureau set a new record of placements for a year in the agricultural field by making 249,826 placements of farm workers. This compares with the 1959 total of 242,321 replacements, the previous yearly high.

Agricultural placements in the Gettysburg area totaled 5,876 in 1960.

OLDER WORKER FIGURES

State-wide figures show more placements of older workers in 1960 than 1959, Keagle said. The bureau found 56,974 jobs for workers 45 years of age and over last year, nearly 3,000 above the 1959 total. Placements of handicapped workers declined slightly to 22,900 last year.

A total of 81,256 persons were given tests during 1960, an increase of 3 per cent over 1959. This included tests given in high schools and local Employment Service offices for general aptitudes, as well as specific aptitudes and proficiency tests given job applicants as part of a scientific screening process before referring them to employers. Counseling interviews increased to 152,322 for the year.

In achieving the record number of agricultural placements in 1960, the bureau placed increased emphasis on recruiting local labor for jobs on the state's farms. Efforts to bring workers from urban areas to the fields through the "day-haul" method were expanded. A number of day-haul programs were operated for much longer periods during the year, thus providing more continuous employment for many seasonal workers.

Greater emphasis on the use of local labor for seasonal farm work has resulted in a decline in the use of migrant labor from the South and Puerto Rico in recent Miller, Timothy Staub, Ann Cremer, Margaret Wildasin, Margaret Gastley, Louise Restak, Odell Adams, Angela Ditzler.

Littlestown

LITTLESTOWN'S BUDGET BASED ON CONTINUING 18-MILL RATE

Littlestown continues in good shape financially, according to tentative budgets adopted by council at its meeting Tuesday evening. Final adoption will take place next month. The budgets show plans for expenditure of $131,756.18 from all funds, and anticipate that the town will end the year with $181,660.18 in the bank.

A balance larger than the expenditures is brought about by the accumulation of funds in the sewer account in an effort to pay off the bonded debt as quickly as possible. Of the anticipated balance at the end of 1961, $119,977.58 will be in the sewer fund.

Council is adopting an 18-mill years. In 1957 about 10,000 out-of-state workers were used in seasonal farm work. The number decreased to 8,300 in 1958 and leveled off at 7,000 for both 1959 and 1960.

levy for its general fund, the same rate Littlestown residents have paid for a number of years. The general fund shows the town in good shape but not quite as good as it was last year when town had a larger balance by $3,000, carried over from 1959, than it planned to spend in 1960. The year however brought more expenditures than anticipated and the balance is not quite as high starting the current year.

$10,000 FROM METERS

In the general fund Littlestown starts the year with $39,407.77 on hand. Its budget for the year calls for expenditure of $56,718.18. However the current budget contemplates a $27,681.41 balance at the end of the year.

General fund income, according to the tentative budget will include an estimated $23,039.08 from the real estate levy; $1,525.36 from the occupation levy of 18 mills; $1,200 from taxes owed from 1960; $1,312.25 from licenses and permits; $1,000 from fines; $50 from rent; $1,728.13 from county aid; $10,000 from parking meter fund and $200 from excavations for street repairs. Total of the estimated receipts and the balance is $84,462.59.

Expenditures will include $300 for the burgess' salary; $1,080 for councilmen's salaries; $652.34 secretary's salary; $204.34 treasurer's salary; $125 auditors' salary; $350 legal services; $250 engineering services; $750 office supplies; $1,300 tax collection.

Other outlays from the general 01.

fund will include $2,910 for borough buildings; $4,000 capital outlay for borough buildings; $10,700 for police protection; $3,425 for protection; $300 capital outlay $200 for ambulance drivers; $90 for other health and sanitation activities such as ash and rubbish collection during clean-up week, etc. $27,400 is scheduled for highway purposes; $1,035 recreation and $1,251 miscellaneous.

The water fund budget shows a balance from 1960 of $31,383.18. Estimated income is $30,000 from water sales and $5,000 from non-revenue receipts, bringing the total receipts and balance to $66,383.18. Expenditures are anticipated as $19,575 for operation, $7,500 for capital outlay and $5,000 for payment on the principal of the water debt. The total estimated expenditures is $32,075 which would leave a balance at the end of the year of $33,808.18.

In the sewer fund budget, receipts are scheduled to total $156,877.58 including the present $119,877.58 balance from 1960. Expenditures will be $36,900 including payment of $10,575 to the authority on principal and interest and $10,000 listed for capital outlay. The balance in the sewer fund at the end of 1961 will be—if the budget holds up—$119,977.58.

The Highway Aid Fund has a balance now of $1,572.38 and anticipates receipts of $4,610.63. Expenditures are listed as $500 for snow removal and $5,500 for street work, leaving a balance of $183-

Toronto Wingman Sets New Record

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Montreal Canadiens have discovered that you can't hold a player like Frank Mahovlich in check forever.

Anxious to preserve National Hockey League records established by teammates of present and bygone eras—particularly retired Maurice Richard's 50-goal mark in one season—the Canadiens had managed to contain the 23-year-old Toronto wingman all season.

But Wednesday night, Mahovlich scored twice as the Maple Leafs downed the Canadiens 5-3 and moved within two points of the league leaders. The goals were Mahovlich's 38th and 39th in 47 games and enabled him to set a record for the highest single season scorer in Toronto history. In the only other game, Johnny Wilson scored a third period goal and goalie Gump Worsley turned in another outstanding performance to lead the revived New York Rangers to a 2-1 decision over the Boston Bruins.

BELL TINKLES TOWN DEBUT

HANKSVILLE, Utah (AP) — The tinkle of a bell holds promise of a brighter future of Hanksville's 100 souls.

It is a telephone bell, br-r-ringing an end to the hamlet's 80 years of virtual isolation from the rest of the United States.

Before the telephone arrived last year, Hanksville's only means of communication with the outside world was a radio that was not always available.

An oiled road also has been pushed through to the south-central Utah community — along with the first electrical power lines — to replace the dusty, rutted dirt trail that used to link Hanksville with the rest.

Hanksville huddles along the Fremont River amid sand-and-rock hills, sagebrush and scrub oak in some of the most desolate country in the West.

But it's not too far from Capitol Reef National Monument, with its rugged scenic attractions, which promise to draw tourists who may have money to spend in Hanksville.

Once in recent years Hanksville's isolation raised fears for the community.

During a spring when Asian flu first hit the United States, word reached Salt Lake City that many Hanksville residents were ill.

The President Wanted The Line

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — There are two telephones in the home of Air Force Col. William D. Kyle Jr. and both of them were busy almost constantly Wednesday night after Mrs. John R. McKone and Mrs. Freeman B. Olmstead, wives of the two released fliers, arrived.

One newsman was trying to phone in a story when an operator cut in.

"But I was using this telephone," the newsmen protested.

"Who wants the line?"

"The President of the United States."

A pause.

"Oh, I guess she (Mrs. McKone) will want to talk to him," the newsmen said.

Worse, high spring runoff water reportedly was washing over the two bridges — one to the east and one to the west — that form Hanksville's only land link with the populated rest of Utah.

For several days, no one knew the fate of Hanksville's residents.

The only radio was at a government airstrip across the river and officials there had no idea what was going on in the town, either.

Finally, the sheriff sent a deputy from the Wayne County seat at Loa, 73 miles away. He was able to refute mounting rumors that the town was in dire straits.

The telephone should change all that.

BUILD DINNER CLUB FOR OLD CHINESE CHEF

By MILTON MARMOR

LONDON (AP) — It isn't often that a smart new restaurant is opened to provide a job for a cook — but then the case of Kou Teh-Lou was an exception.

To begin with, Kou was one of China's great chefs.

Then, he became the chef in the Communist Chinese embassy in London, a post he held from 1954 until last February 26 when he defected and sought freedom in the west.

CULINARY VICTORY

The British government gave him refuge and thereby scored a major culinary victory in the East-West struggle.

But, Kou was left without a job.

So the anti-Communist Chinese of London, led by former Nationalist ambassador D. Chen Yao-Sheng, got together with a syndicate which operates some of the leading Chinese restaurants in London and did something about it.

They established the Lung Feng Restaurant Club in the smart section of Knightsbridge.

The club has a nominal membership fee yet runs on lush, luxury lines.

It also has something you can't get in the average Chinese restaurant — real Chinese food.

The delicacies are flown in from the Far East and, if you order well in advance, you can sit down to shark's fin soup, Peking duck and other dishes with the sauces that bring back memories of youth to old Far East hands.

CHARMING FELLOW

Head chef Kou, a charming, jolly sort, is beginning to feel at home in his new surroundings.

But there's the sadness of the East behind the eternal smile. His family is still in Peiping.

"Cooking is all that is left for me," he said through an interpreter, for his English is still almost nil. "My wife and two sons are in Peiping. I write to them. But I never get a reply."

"I hated Communism, especially having to go to self-criticism sessions. They even wanted to say I was a bad cook."

Infant Dies From Being Cold At Home

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Six-month-old Kelly Jean Yost spent a night with her family in a house where the only heat was furnished by a kitchen gas range. She died Wednesday from what the Allegheny County coroner's office said was pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Yost and their seven children moved into the house in Pittsburgh's West End on Tuesday. The temperature in the city early Wednesday morning dropped to 10 degrees below zero.

Homicide detectives said the gas in the home had been turned on but Yost was unable to make the furnace operate.

They said the parents covered the baby with four or five blankets but when they took her to Allegheny General Hospital Wednesday, she was dead on arrival.

GOOD GUESS

LOVELAND, Colo. (AP) — The Loveland post office received a letter addressed merely to "The Big Squirt, Loveland, Colo."

Postal officials delivered it to a firm here which manufactures farmland sprinklers. It was the right address.

2 American Flyers Coming Home To Reunions Today

By GEOFFREY GOULD
WASHINGTON (AP) — Two American flyers were winging home today from a Soviet prison where they had been held for almost seven months.

The fliers, Capt. Freeman B. Olmstead of Elmira, N.Y., and John R. McKone of Topeka, Kan., will have an ecstatic reunion about 4 p.m. today in Washington with their wives and families.

As an Air Force plane sped them across the Atlantic, another was prepared to whisk both wives from Topeka. The men were based there before their overseas assignment that ended with the shooting down of their RB47 reconnaissance plane by a Soviet fighter last July.

GOT WORD EARLY
"We never gave up hope," said both Mrs. Olmstead and Mrs. McKone Wednesday night. One was calm, the other fighting tears. "Connie, I'm so happy," said Mrs. Olmstead to Mrs. McKone weepingly. "I'm still completely dry," said Mrs. McKone with a grin.

The two women had gotten the word that their husbands were freed just five minutes before President Kennedy announced it during his televised news conference. The President telephoned Mrs. McKone after the conference and she said he told her how happy he was that the fliers had been freed.

There was the same kind of overwhelming joy in Elmira, where Olmstead's parents got the news "like a bombshell out of the blue" as they watched Kennedy on TV.

BITTERNESS IN TOPEKA
"We simply broke down in tears," said the father. "It is the most marvelous birthday that I have ever had." He is 64 today. But there was bitterness and grief in the Topeka home of Mrs. Oscar L. Goforth, wife of one of the plane's three crewmen who are still missing and presumed dead.

Mrs. Goforth told newsmen, "If my husband is dead, I will always blame President Eisenhower. If he had handled things differently my husband would not be where he is—wherever he is."

She said she had sent a telegram and a letter to Eisenhower, asking more information about her husband's fate, but received no answer.

ONE BODY RETURNED

Mrs. Goforth said she has never given up hope that her husband is alive, and now hopes to get a first hand account of the shooting down of the plane from Olmstead and McKone. "I am in a state of suspense," she said. "It's terrible."

The body of a fourth victim, pilot Willard B. Palm of Oak Ridge, Tenn., was found by the Soviets, they said, floating in a rubber life raft in the icy Barents Sea. Palm's body was returned and he was buried with honors at Arlington National Cemetery.

Palm's widow had a different reaction. "I am so happy to hear the news," she said. "I hope now we can find out a lot of things—the truth—and just what happened to the other boys."

THREE MISSING

When a reporter expressed regret that Mrs. Palm's husband could not return too, she said "I'm sorry too, I certainly hope that God is His wisdom knows best."

The six-jet RB47 was shot down last July 1. Olmstead and McKone parachuted to safety, though Olmstead received a serious back injury. Of the others, only Palm's body was returned.

Asks 13 Weeks More Unemployment Pay

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. James E. Van Zandt, R-Pa., has introduced a bill which would allow states to provide 13 more weeks of unemployment compensation.

Van Zandt said Wednesday he had the bill drawn up after William L. Batt Jr., Pennsylvania secretary of labor and industry, told him that 2,556 persons had exhausted their jobless benefits last year in Altoona, Bellefonte, Clearfield, DuBois and Philipsburg.

The missing men are Capt. Eugene E. Posa, 33, of Santa Monica, Calif.; 1st Lt. Dean B. Phillips, 25, of Inwood, N.Y., and 1st Lt. Goforth.

NEW CLINIC OPENED

HARRISBURG (AP) — An alcoholism clinic has been opened by the State Health Department in Bryn Mawr's Community Center Building.

The department announced Wednesday said the center will offer treatment and counseling to alcoholics but that persons in need of psychiatric or rehabilitative treatment will be referred to the Alcoholism Center in Philadelphia. The clinic, staffed by two nurses, will be open Mondays from 2 to 5 p.m.

He added that Batt told him he expected unemployment benefits to expire at the rate of 300 a month this year in the five cities all in Van Zandt's district.

Killed On Turnpike After Auto Mishap

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa. (AP) — A truck driver was killed on the Pennsylvania Turnpike near here Wednesday when his rig smashed into the rear of a maintenance vehicle near the Blue Mountain Tunnel.

The victim was David W. Miles, 26, New Castle. Two turnpike employees in the maintenance truck, Ernest Shuman and Harry Mohr of Newberg R. 1, escaped injury.

Turnpike officials said their vehicle was displaying a warning sign and a flashing red light when the accident occurred on a straight, dry section of the superhighway. Miles' truck was loaded with steel.

U. S. DEFICIT MAY DROP HALF SAY EXPERTS

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The United States is heading into its fourth year of red ink in its international finances. But the deficit—a prime reason for our loss of gold and for fears about the dollar's strength—may drop by almost one-half this year compared to 1960's worrisome drain.

These are the views of a group of economists and financial officers of some of the top U. S. corporations doing international business. They forecast this year's balance of payments deficit at $1.9 billion against 1960's estimated $3.2 billion.

At the same time some observers in Britain—a nation that got a big chunk of U. S. financial aid in the postwar years—point out that the United States can stop the deficits and the gold and dollar drain at any time.

CAN CUT SPENDING

The latest, the Daily Express in London, says whenever President

Kennedy's advisers wish they can cut spending on "military projects abroad and on economic aid to foreign countries." The paper says that's what is causing the drain and it adds, "financial aid rarely helps the country that receives it." It says, now, that Britain should have stood "on her own two feet."

And in Washington it is reported that the President has ordered a study of our overseas military spending as it fits into the missile age.

But private industry's study group—the Balance of Payments Group of the National Foreign Trade Council—doesn't consider the reasons for the spending, merely tries to forecast the amount of this year's outlays.

1961 DOLLAR OUTFLOW

It puts the 1961 outflow of dollars this way: Commercial imports of goods and raw materials will reach $15 billion, up $300 million from 1960. It thinks that transportation, travel and miscellaneous services will add $4.9 billion, about the same as last year.

The group expects military expenditures to drop by $300 million to $2.7 billion. And it thinks foreigners will take $900 million, the same as last year, in returns on their investments here.

But another $5.8 billion will be spent abroad. The group breaks this down into a net outflow of private capital of $2.3 billion, government capital of $1.2 billion, government economic aid of $1.7 billion, and private remittances of $600 million.

The grand total outflow thus comes to $29.3 billion, down $800 million from 1960.

DROP IN OUTFLOW

The group thinks this decrease in dollar outflow will be due in the main to a big drop in the outflow of private short-term capital, which caused much of the gold troubles late in 1960. Also it forecasts a drop of $1 billion in private investment abroad.

But it thinks our imports will rise because of "inventory rebuilding, continued prosperous business conditions and a sustained strong sales effort on the part of European and Japanese exporters."

While it is sending $29.3 billion abroad, the United States is expected to take in $27.4 billion, a gain of $500 million over 1960.

When the books are finally balanced, Uncle Sam will be out $1.9 billion, the group says—providing, of course, government policies don't change, and business improves mildly later this year as generally forecast.

MAKES BOW IN II TROVATORE FRIDAY NIGHT

By WILLIAM GLOVER
NEW YORK (AP)—"The morning after I got here," velvet-voiced Leontyne Price recalls, "I went up to the top of the Empire State Building—and was nearly tempted to go right back home."

"You could see the massiveness of the city, feel the pace of competition—and know how small you were. It seemed impossible to attain a career."

Stiffing that panic, Miss Price stayed and studied—with spectacular results for the world of music.

Since first appearing before the public eight years ago, the soprano who began life amid humble circumstances in Laurel, Miss., has soared to international acclaim. Friday night she reaches another milestone in her debut with the Metropolitan Opera.

IN IL TROVATORE

Miss Price—whose voice has been likened by one critic to "a skylark under the spell of some sort of benign bewitchment"—premieres in the principal feminine role of "Il Trovatore."

Although two other noted Negro women have preceded her in Met assignments — Marian Anderson and Mattiilda Dobbs—Miss Price arrives with prima donna status in a variety of assignments.

Her appearance of the Met rounds out an impressive cycle of major opera companies, television and concert and recording fields.

"A cold fever breaks over me sometimes when I think how frighteningly fast it has happened," Miss Price says.

"My career has been almost too simple. The only serious difficulty for me has been performing and learning at the same time."

Tall and regal in manner, Miss Price defines her main purpose now as solidifying and extending her talents in musical drama. "I hope for a long operatic career," she says. "It is what I have wanted since first being exposed to opera in school."

Miss Price's major training began in 1948 when a scholarship brought her to the Juilliard School of Music, after B.A. studies at Central State College, Wilberforce, Ohio.

A Laurel banker and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Chisholm—in whose home an aunt of Miss Price worked—helped finance her years of study.

HAD ONE MENTOR

Her teacher at Juilliard, Florence Page Kimball, has remained her single mentor ever since. Miss Kimball and her own parents are the great forces to whom she credits her accomplishments.

SEES KENNEDY HEADING FOR HUSHUP RULE

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Those plumpers of history, newsmen with an ear for leaks, have their work cut out for them in the Kennedy administration.

President Kennedy, starting his first full week in the White House, seems to have laid down a policy of hush-mouth.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk was noted for not talking much.

At least once each year she returns to Laurel, where she was born Feb. 10, 1927, to see her father and mother—James, a carpenter, and Kate, who worked as a midwife.

In private life, Miss Price is the wife of baritone William Warfield, whom she met during her first extended singing engagement on tour in "Porgy and Bess."

Outwardly Miss Price exhibits none of the evidences of temperament that often surround artistic greatness. But, she says, "even a meek person has temperament and so do I. I guess I am slow to anger—but I do arrive there often."

when he worked in the State Department some years ago.

Rusk came away from the White House Monday, after talking with Kennedy, with the news the Kennedy administration wants quiet diplomacy.

Then there were the Democratic congressional leaders who perhaps for the first time had practically nothing to say.

NOT EVEN MUMBLING

When they came away from talking with Kennedy Tuesday, they may have been mumbling to themselves but they weren't even doing that to reporters.

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson confided to reporters a piece of information which didn't send them racing for the telephones.

He said the talk with Kennedy involved problems facing the nation.

It seemed only yesterday that President Eisenhower's congressional leaders could hardly wait to leave him before making statements.

This didn't mean they revealed much, but compared with the Democrats Tuesday, they looked like a bunch of chatterboxes.

SCRIBES FACE WORK

If this clam-up is going to be Kennedy policy, it means reporters will have to work harder finding people who will leak news to them without being quoted.

Since Kennedy plans on having regular news conferences, perhaps he has decided that, if his administration does any talking,

Tractor Kills Man After Rolling Over

LOYSVILLE, Pa. (AP)—A tractor rolled over an embankment on a snow-covered rural lane Wednesday, fatally injuring its driver, Harry Smith Jr., 3, Loysville R. D.

Smith was going to a neighbor's farm near this Perry County community to plow open the neighbor's lane to the main highway.

He was pinned under the tractor as it slid down the 20-foot embankment and overturned. The neighbor, Morris Loy, found the body about an hour and a half later.

he'll do it.

This may explain the unenlightening explanation by Kennedy's press secretary, Pierre Salinger, when asked how come the quietude.

"We are not tightening information," Salinger said, "we're trying to coordinate it."

There was a particular reason for hoping Rusk would open up. Over the weekend Soviet Premier Khrushchev had called in the American ambassador in Moscow, Llewellyn E. Thompson Jr., and talked with him for hours.

But Rusk brushed aside would-be questioners with a statement: "The value of the diplomatic channel depends on its privacy." He wouldn't say what Khrushchev had talked about.

Mary Louise Day:

Edward Speaks Well Of Her

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Mary Louise Day is a modest, brunette who doesn't like to talk about herself, except to say, "I'm primarily interested in my family."

J. Edward Day, newly appointed postmaster general, is, however, not reluctant to talk about his wife.

"She is very popular in the neighborhood (the fashionable Wilshire District of Los Angeles) and enjoys her family." The latter includes Geraldine, 17, and Mary Louise (Molly), 14, who attend a private school for girls, and Jimmy, 12, who goes to a public junior high school.

"She makes friends very easily and is active in many civic causes, in the Community Chest, Children's Hospital and an association of her college alumnae, the Vassar Club," Day goes on.

COSTLY CURIOSITY

"She is good at organizing a large party and seeing that everyone feels at home," Mrs. Day also has taken part in public life, during Adlai Stevenson's term as governor of Illinois.

"She's a very good bridge player, a better player than I am. We're both quite mediocre tennis players."

Mrs. Day also has her share of curiosity, according to that informed source, her husband. Shortly after his appointment, a telegram arrived with $5.60 due. The family wasn't expecting a telegram, but Mrs. Day wanted to know what it was. Day says,

"She had to go around collecting money from the children to pay the telegraph boy."

The telegram was a lengthy message of congratulations, sent collect.

GOODBYE SUNSHINE

Mrs. Day was born in Chicago in 1917, was graduated from Vassar College in 1939 with a major in economics, met her husband in Chicago where he was working in her father's law firm and married him in 1941.

They have lived in Southern California for the last four years and have done much sightseeing. Mrs. Day says she is highly pleased about her husband's appointment but admits there are a few disadvantages connected with the move to Washington. Geraldine is a senior in high school; a planned trip to Europe this spring is off, and they'll all miss the Southern California weather.

Day says the one thing about his appointment that floors his wife and children is that he will be addressed as "General."

He just doesn't expect to hear that title at home.

TROY, N.Y. (AP) — George Hallinger was struck by an automobile as he walked along a highway north of here. The driver stopped, gave him $5 and asked him to forget the matter. Hallinger called police and was sent to jail on a charge of hitchhiking.

VFW POST TO HOLD DANCE ON SATURDAY

Plans were discussed to sponsor a membership dance on Saturday at the semimonthly meeting of the Mason and Dixon Memorial Post No. 6954, Veterans of Foreign Wars, held on Tuesday evening at the post home, W. King St.

On Saturday at 6:30 p.m., the Ladies' Auxiliary of the post will be host to the units of the 21st District at a banquet in honor of the president of the Department of Pennsylvania, Mrs. Dorothy K. Turner, of Shoenmakersville, at Banker's Restaurant, N. Queen St. The department commander and secretary-treasurer will also be present. The post made arrangements to have a dance from 9:30 to 1 a.m. after the banquet.

The VFW voted to purchase a new 50-star gold fringe United States staff flag for the Littlestown High School band. It was decided to send get well cards in the future to ill members of the post and auxiliary.

Commander Earl J. Weaver, who presided, welcomed three new members: Robert W. Six, Max Russell Price and Charles Robert Ohler. The post will meet again on Tuesday, February 14.

PLAN RECORD HOP

The Varsity "L" Club of the Littlestown High School will sponsor a Buddy Deane record hop on Saturday, February 4, starting at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium. The members of the club recently received their varsity jackets.

The Bermudian Springs basketball team at a game on the Bermudian High court on Friday evening. Next Tuesday evening, the Thunderbolts will host the team from Fannett-Metal on the home court.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Littlestown Aerie No. 2226 will sponsor a public party on Friday starting at 8 p.m. in the social room of the F.O.E. Home, W. King St.

The Electrons will provide music for the membership dance for the Eagles on Saturday night from 9:30 to 12:30 o'clock in the social room.

PARTY ON SATURDAY

The weekly public party will be held in St. Aloysius Parish Hall on Saturday night beginning at 8 o'clock. Prizes will be awarded and refreshments will be available.

Karl Bankert, a sophomore at Dickinson College, Carlisle, is spending the semester vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Karl P. Bankert, N. Queen St.

Twenty-seven members were present at the meeting of the Junior High Luther League of St. Paul's Lutheran Church on Sunday evening. Martha Ritter was in charge of the program and her mother, Mrs. Luther W. Ritter showed slide pictures on the theme "The Lord's Wonderful Earth." Gaynelle Ritter played a piano solo and was also accompanist for group singing. There was a contest with the girls versus the boys and the former won. At the close of the session, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed. The

Union Official Is Robbed Of $160

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Two gunmen held up and robbed Ralph R. Getts, 72, a union official from Fort Wayne, Ind., Wednesday in his Roosevelt Hotel room in downtown Pittsburgh.

Police took a man into custody in the city's Hill District several hours after the holdup for questioning.

Getts, vice general chairman of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks said the men appeared at his door, flashed what looked like a police press card and said they wanted to interview him.

He told detectives the men pulled out automatic pistols as they entered the room and then bound and gagged him.

He said they took $160 in cash, a watch worth $125 belonging to his wife, a necklace and other jewelry of undetermined value.

Mrs. Getts was out of the room at the time.

Getts was later discovered and freed by a maid.

TOWN MAY BUY EQUIPMENT TO REMOVE SNOW

Littlestown borough may purchase equipment to move future snows, instead of renting it as needed, according to discussion at Tuesday evening's meeting of Littlestown council at the office of its secretary.

First item of business at the meeting was "a general discussion in regard to the recent heavy snowfall and the complaints received relative to its removal from the business section area," according to the Secretary Roger Keefe.

The minutes show that the budget committee had tentatively set up $600 for snow removal in the general fund and $500 in the state highway fund. Secretary Roger J. Keefe told council he had informed Street Commissioner Joseph H. Redding that $500 of the budgeted amount for 1961 had already been spent because of December's bills for snow removal, which arrived in January, and "unless a larger appropriation was made he (the street commissioner) would have to take it easy on the snow removal."

COMPLAINT ABOUT STATE

Council learned the equipment for snow removal was not available at the time the decision was made for snow removal. Council generally agreed that in the future the street commissioner should use his own judgment as to when the snow should be removed and then discussed the possibility of purchasing equipment that could be used not only for snow removal but for other borough work and thus effect "a saving."

Council minutes disclose "Council also discussed the manner the State Highway Department employed in their maintenance of their highways in and around the vicinity of Littlestown and the secretary was instructed to notify the superintendent of highways that the council feels that Littlestown and the surrounding areas were not getting their proper maintenance of the highways in regards to snow removal."

TO KEEP GENERATOR

The building committee reported on tentative plans to permit use of part of the basement of the E. King St. school building as a social room for the Alpha Fire Co.

The committee discussed tentative plans for fire calls after the dial system is inaugurated in Littlestown. Approval was given for the borough to keep a Civil Defense emergency generator when it was learned that it can be put in working shape for several hundred dollars. Council voted to pay the $75 asked by Civil Defense for the equipment.

After some discussion on the possibility of salary increases for borough employees council voted to hold an executive meeting Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the secretary's office to discuss the matter further.

LONG SESSION

Purchase of a new holster for Special Policeman Robert C. Koontz was voted.

Bills totaling $3,824.54 were approved for payment. Receipts reported by Treasurer John H. Flickinger totaled $15,696.55 of which $15,380.05 was from sewer and water rentals.

Chief of Police Calvin W. Mummet's report showed 47 arrests or parking violations, 16 arrests on motor code violations. Two criminal investigations and four accident investigations were conducted along with four others for government or other outside agencies. Five funeral escorts and five payroll escorts were given.

for a number of years. She also listed the highlights of the club's 10-year history. Her name has been sent to the National Council State Garden Clubs, Inc., to be written in the "Honor Book, Tribute of Appreciation." Also honored in the same manner were Mrs. Warren Enck, the club's first president, "who did much to maintain close cooperation in the club's first year"; and Mrs. Allen Stauffer, the club's second president, who laid the groundwork for civic committee projects and memberships. The latter two were presidents before the club was federated.

READ 10-YEAR HISTORY

Mrs. Leinart, Mrs. Yoder and Mrs. Carey, three past presidents, were presented with silver pins inscribed with the National Garden Club emblem by the president, Mrs. John A. Lawver.

The Biglerville Garden Club's ten-year history was read and presented in booklet form to each member by Miss Alma Miller, who compiled the data.

Mrs. Nary, assisted by Miss Miller, related the 10-year highlights. Mrs. J. Henry Donhart closed the meeting with a prayer.

The club has 39 active members, 20 active charter members, nine associate members and five active associate members.

The program committee included Mrs. Pitzer, Mrs. Donhart and Mrs. George Martin.

Seven warrants and two summons were served. Parking meter collections totaled $592.06. The council session ended at 12:40 o'clock Wednesday morning.

LONDON (AP) — Britain and the United Arab Republic today formally re-established full diplomatic relations by announcing an exchange of ambassadors. The countries broke relations in 1956 as a result of the British-French invasion of the Suez.

She is also a member of the Pi Gamma Mu national honor society, serves on the YWCA regional and national council and is vice chairman of the regional organization and serves as editor for the Regional Newsletter of the YWCA. She was recently listed in the Who's Who among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

HOST TO COUNCIL

Miss Taynton traveled in the Soviet Union during the last summer with a YWCA and YMCA group. She also serves as a member delegate to the USA-USSR exchange delegation from the national board of the YM-YWCA.

She has chosen for her topic in the morning service "The Soviets Are People Too." At 7 p.m., Memorial Church will serve as host for the Gettysburg Youth Council for a special service in which Miss Taynton will show colored slides of her trip to Russia. Youth groups of the area are specially invited.

Following the evening service, the Youth Fellowship of Memorial Church will provide light refreshments.

was also concerned because the Santa Maria belonged to a friendly nation.

Cmdr. Charles Rainey, spokesman at the Navy search headquarters in San Juan, said the Navy's "prime consideration now is the safety and welfare of the crew and passengers." As to future action, search officials would only say that they awaited orders from a higher level. The idea appeared to be to get a Navy surface ship in range of the liner, then get orders from Washington depending on the situation.

WILL WATCH LINES

After Krauss, flying a P2V Neptune, located the Santa Maria, the Navy made arrangements to keep the fugitive ship under constant surveillance. A Brazil-based, long range Constellation was sent out with orders to "track and report position" of the liner.

The U.S. destroyers Damato and Wilson and the British frigate Rothesay were sidelined for refueling after fruitlessly chasing the Santa Maria through the Caribbean.

But two U.S. destroyers on a goodwill tour of West African ports—the Vogelgesang and Gearing—were ordered out to intercept the runaway and tail her.

SUB JOINS CHASE

A report from Trinidad said the high-speed nuclear submarine Seawolf and the fleet tanker Cansiteo also had been ordered to overtake the Santa Maria.

Defenses were alerted in Portugal's Cape Verde Islands, off the African coast, and in Angola by Premier Antonio de Oliveira Salazar, the dictator Galvao and his men have declared "war" on it. It was obvious they feared the rebel band would try to spark a rebellion in the territories, where unrest has been rumored periodically.

The frigate Pedro Escobar, armed with 3 inch guns, set out hurriedly from Lisbon "on a special mission" after the runaway rebels. Salazar's secret police Wednesday questioned officials of the Colonial Navigation Company, owners of the liner.

The Vera Cruz, a sister ship of the Santa Maria owned by the same line, Wednesday night delayed its sailing from Rio de Janeiro. Capt. Ambrose Perreira Ramarelo said the refrigeration system broke down and denied the delay had anything to do with the seizure of the Santa Maria.

The rebels' titular leader, Gen. Humberto Delgado, told Associated Press Correspondent William

L. Ryan his Movement for National Independence hopes the seizure of the Santa Maria will touch off a chain reaction against Salazar.

EXILE IN BRAZIL

Delgado, an exile in Brazil since he ran unsuccessfully for the Portuguese presidency in 1958, was interviewed in Sao Paulo. Asked if he thought the takeover justified risking the lives of the 600 passengers and 370 crew on the cruise ship, Delgado replied:

"We cannot be governed by feelings of emotion. During the World War planes killed thousands of people at a time. War is war. It's war on Portuguese territory. The ship is ours and it is purely Portuguese business."

Delgado said his movement was not a political party, that it stands only for overthrow of Salazar, dictator of Portugal for 33 years, and for elections as soon as possible after that.

PLAN SALE DAYS

Next year's Christmas expense will be smaller, it was noted, because less new material will have to be bought. This year marked completion of a two-year program to provide "a brand new Christmas decoration set-up."

Final arrangements were made for semiannual Gettysburg Sale Days Friday and Saturday. As part of the Sale Days program in which merchants are announcing "the biggest bargains ever," $570 in merchandise certificates will be awarded to patrons of the local stores during the two-day event sponsored by the Retail Merchants Association. Two other awards totaling $100 will also be given.

AP Writer Finds W. Va. Conditions Are "Grim"

EDITOR'S NOTE — Conditions are grim in West Virginia. It is the prime example of bad times in the depressed labor areas of the nation. Nate Polowetzky, Associated Press assistant general business editor, touring these areas, reports on West Virginia in the following article.

By NATE POLOWETZKY

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Abandoned wooden houses, boarded up and rotting in the rain, some being torn apart for kindling, stand as grim symbols of the soul-killing unemployment that grips the southern West Virginia coal fields.

Dirty children, hungry and ill clothed, and sad faced men stand along muddy roads and stare into the mountains. The mines are shut.

Row after row of empty stores display — with optimism — "for rent" signs along the main streets of once prosperous coal towns. The mines are shut.

MUTE EVIDENCE

Half-mile long lines of empty coal cars stand mutely on railroad sidings waiting for cargoes that will never come. The mines are shut.

"The day before last Christmas," reports a civic leader in a coal town, "I delivered a $20 food parcel to a miner's family for my church. There was a husband, a wife, and I think, six children. The day after New Year's I returned to deliver another package. Do you know that woman said the second package was the first bit of food to enter that house since my previous visit?"

Reports a housewife who helped in the state's 1960 census.

"You wouldn't believe it but some families reported that not a cent—not a cent, mind you, had come into their house for a whole year."

NO CURE IN SIGHT

This is the depressed area of West Virginia, one of the worst in the nation—an area that may never again—at least in the foreseeable future—be cured of its ills.

To help such areas the new administration of President Kennedy has given top priority to legislation providing for government help to improve existing industrial plants, attract new industry and retrain unemployed workers.

Very few in these parts see this—or anything much else—as a solution to the area's woes.

For the coal fields of West Virginia have been sorely hit by mechanization through which a comparative handful of men now produce as much, if not more, coal than scores did some years

WIDESPREAD CHANGE

And coal, which once dispensed wealth with ease, has had to abdicate in the face of changes in consumer and industrial tastes in fuel.

Production has failed to rise because railroads switched to diesel and electrification; homes and industries changed to oil and gas; foreign residual oil found its place in coal's traditional east coast markets, and some foreign countries put up tariffs against American coal.

It is unlikely these markets will be regained and even if production should rise it is almost impossible the old time employment will ever return.

NO NATIONAL TIE-IN

What makes it even worse is that the situation may have little connection with the state of the nation's health. Things don't get much better during the nation's prosperity. But they get worse during recession.

The depression in coal also has caused unemployment in other industries dependent on it. Additionally, the state's glassware industry has found stiff competition in foreign imports, leading to other layoffs and cutbacks.

As a result, some 85,000 persons are out of work in West Virginia. Between 30,000 and 35,000 have exhausted their unemployment benefits. At least 250,000 persons last December were receiving surplus food commodities from the U.S. Department of Agriculture and another 40,000 were eligible for surplus food.

OVER 10 PCT. JOBLESS

The unemployment rate in the state is from 10 to 12 per cent, compared to a national figure of 6.4 per cent. In coal-producing McDowell County the rate is 28.9 per cent.

In the 10 years from 1950 to 1960, the state's population dropped from 2,300,522 to 1,860,000. The young and the eager were leaving.

The state's economic picture is not one of unrelieved gloom, however.

Such industries as power and oil and gas have expanded and provided new jobs in the Kanawha Valley around Charleston and new industries such as chemicals, wood processing, metals, plastics and rubber fabrication, have moved into the Ohio River Valley in the last five years.

SOME NEW JOBS

This is expected to provide more than 6,000 new jobs in the Charleston area by 1963 and 19,000 in the Wheeling area.

Hope is also held for new industries.

DESIGNER FOR DIOR FACING BIG DILEMMA

By NADEANE WALKER

PARIS (AP)—When Marc Bohan accepted the job of designing the spring fashion collection for Christian Dior, he found himself in the middle of what might be called "Dior's dilemma."

His youthful predecessor, Yves Saint-Laurent, provoked the issue by getting a very early discharge from the Army, following a nervous collapse. Will he take his job back from Bohan after a single season? French law assures him, like any draftee, that he can if he chooses.

Driving himself to work in a small red sports car at 10 a.m. yesterday, Bohan dived speedily into his studio. He was still there at midnight, working feverishly on sketches that must prove his perhaps temporary title of "Style Dictator," inherited via Saint-Laurent from Christian "New Look" Dior himself.

NO SIGNS OF COLLAPSE

Showing no signs of any nervous collapse, which might be understandable in the circumstances, Bohan firmly refuses any comment on his future plans if Monsieur Saint-Laurent returns. French newspapers have already tagged 34-year-old Bohan as "Sympathique," which means they like him.

The small, elegant, dark-haired Frenchman who wears Dior's mantle for at least this season is already a veteran of 16 years in Paris high fashion, for he began his career at 19 with Piquet, continuing with Molyneux, Patou and finally Dior.

He has revealed that he is in tries and expansion in north central West Virginia and the eastern part on the Virginia border.

But even the most optimistic observers state these developments will be able to make only a small dent in the coal fields unemployment on top of an increased labor force.

To help combat unemployment, the state has started some public works; now Gov. W. W. Barron increased the tax on consumer purchases to raise money for more public works and conservation programs; the state has begun thorough studies of manpower needs of the future with an eye for wholesale retraining of unemployed coal miners and others.

TALK OF TOURISTS

Among small communities there is a spirit of determination to improve their towns, straighten out tax laws, build better roads and communications facilities, new schools and recreational facilities. All with an eye to attracting new industries.

There is much talk heard of turning beautiful West Virginia into a tourists' paradise.

Plans are also being discussed for more research in other uses of coal to create new industries in the state and more production, as well as the establishment of local industries to process such natural resources as timber instead of shipping this natural wealth outside.

But these are off in the distance. The problem in the coal areas is immediate.

favor of short skirts—"We had enough trouble getting them accepted, and besides, my wife likes them!"—but is "personally against brutal style revolutions."

"SURPRISE, NOT ASTONISH"

Modes, he says, "should surprise but not astonish." Loose waistlines, the biggest style news in the past 10 years in his estimation, "will still last a long time."

Proving his personal courage, Bohan has come out strongly in favor of Frenchwomen and against certain current fads.

"The Frenchwoman," he declares, "has a gift (which foreigners do not always share) of personalizing what she wears. Good taste distinguishes Frenchwomen and assures that Paris will always be Paris." But he visited America in 1958 and came back with a "good impression."

He says, "I appreciate American women's taste for novelty and style in general." He speaks a little English, likes American mannequins, prefers "very thin types."

NO SPIT CURLS

He does not hesitate to turn thumbs down on these current fads: black-rimmed eyes, gold lame, spit-curls and boots for women. They've all been run into the ground since last season, he comments tersely.

His pet outfit for his debut Dio collection will be casual sports suits, even carried over for evening wear in dressy materials. Black and blue are his favored colors, and he dislikes green, but does not bar it absolutely from his show.

Married at 24 and the father of a six-year-old daughter, Anne-Marie, Bohan defends the privacy of his family to the extent of declining to reveal his wife's first name to interviewers. He has grudgingly admitted that it was his seamstress mother, now dead, who first interested him in fashion designing.

His father, two brothers and two sisters are a subject he considers purely personal and private.

OTHER INTERESTS

Away from work, theater and home decorating are his two great interests.

Unlike Saint-Laurent, who is shy to the point of seeming wooden in interviews, Bohan enjoys the social side of his job at Dior's. With disarming charm, he admits that he is scared stiff at the thought of his opening when the Dior salons will as usual be turned into a frantic melee packed from the galleries to the bottom of the stairs with eager spectators.

But he started sketching from that debut from the day—September 28—when he was named to step into Saint-Laurent's shoes. Three-quarters of his sketches he says he tears up. The rest are expected to supply the sensation that a Dior show must always provide.

HE'S INDEPENDENT

The Dior biographies of Bohan do not mention that he opened his own fashion house some eight years ago. It failed after a single season, not for lack of designing talent but for want of financial backing. Although he now says he has no further ambitions for a fashion house of his own Bohan obviously does have a taste for independence. It was rumored that he left Patou, after four years of very successful collections, because he was not given credit as the designer, and he had already resigned as designer of Dior's London collection to go to Revillon when he was invited to take over the top spot on Saint-Laurent's departure for the Army.

"Dior's Dilemma" will be thickened if Marc Bohan produces the success Paris fashion circles expect from him.

NOTICES

Card of Thanks C

DEARDORFF: I wish to thank my friends and neighbors for the many kindnesses shown me during the illness and after the death of my mother, Clara C. Deardorff.

JOHN J. DEARDORFF

In Memoriam D

WOODWARD: In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, Hattie B. Woodward, who departed this life eight years ago today.

No one knows the silent heartache, Only those who have lost can tell Of the grief that borne in silence For the one we loved so well.

Gone is the face we love so dear, Silent the voice we loved to hear And those who think of her today Are the ones who loved her best.

No one knows how we miss her As the time goes by, But we know we can meet her someday

In that better home on high. Sadly missed by her loving children

Good Will Gestures Are Exchanged By Russia And U.S. But Hurdles Remain

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—Soviet release of two imprisoned American fliers increased today the chances for a meeting between President Kennedy and Premier Khrushchev later this year. But in Kennedy's view many other obstacles to a summit conference must still be cleared away.

Kennedy announced the freeing of the two airmen, Capt. John R. McKone of Topeka, Kan., and Capt. Freeman B. Olmstead of Elmira, N.Y., at his first presidential news conference Wednesday night. It was a goodwill gesture by Khrushchev and something of a diplomatic triumph for Kennedy.

Kennedy offered a goodwill gesture of his own, announcing he had ordered that U2 spy plane flights over the Soviet Union not be resumed. In that action he renewed an assurance given by President Eisenhower when the Paris summit conference blew up last May. Khrushchev had declared then his interest in knowing whether Eisenhower's successor would resume the flights.

OTHER COMMENTS

On other matters dealing with foreign relations, Kennedy said:

(1) There are no present plans for reopening diplomatic relations with Cuba. (2) There has been no Soviet reaction to the British proposal for reviving an international control commission for Laos and (3) U.S. contributions of foodstuffs will be increased substantially to relieve famine in the Congo.

One question posed by Kennedy's announcement was whether Khrushchev and he had exchanged concessions—the release of the airmen for a pledge of no more spy flights. When asked if Khrushchev had required a concession to free McKone and Olmstead, Kennedy replied that he did not.

The President also said that he would not "attempt to make a judgment as to why the Soviet Union chose to release them at this time." Some officials reported that U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn E. Thompson raised the subject of the imprisoned airmen in a two-hour conference with Khrushchev last Saturday. Others said Khrushchev was the first to bring it up.

HELD SINCE JULY

The men had been held since last July 1 when their RB47 jet was shot down over the Barents Sea. The United States said the plane was deliberately attacked over international waters. The Soviets said it had invaded Soviet airspace on an espionage mission. Moscow linked the RB47 with the U2 flight of pilot Francis Gary Powers which went down in the Soviet Union May 1. Powers was sentenced as a spy and is still held by the Soviets.

Under the Eisenhower administration the State Department made repeated demands on the Soviet Union to free the two RB47 airmen. The demands were ignored or refused. The Soviet government said McKone and Olmstead would be tried for espionage. But after Kennedy's election in November officials here decided there was a good chance Khrushchev would release the two following Kennedy's inauguration.

"PEACE OFFENSIVE"

Meanwhile Khrushchev had bitterly and repeatedly denounced the U2 flights, for which he blamed Eisenhower. At the same time he talked about a new era in U.S.-Soviet affairs when the new administration took over in Washington. Thus from the beginning the RB47 incident and the U2 flight were linked in his view. The elements of a mutual understanding, whether openly stated or not, were clearly possible when Khrushchev met Saturday with Thompson.

But diplomats here, including U.S. officials, see Khrushchev's release of the fliers in a much broader context. They regard it as the first step in a carefully prepared Soviet strategy for a new "peace offensive" directed toward reopening U.S.-Soviet negotiations on the road to a new summit conference.

Measured by this purpose the release of the airmen was an opening gesture of good will—and one with global propaganda value. Kennedy himself said the action "removes a serious obstacle to improvement of Soviet-American relations." And in Moscow the Foreign Office declared McKone and Olmstead were freed in "a sincere desire to usher in a new stage in relations between the Soviet government and the United States."

GREATER ISSUES AHEAD

The removal of barriers to negotiation only opens the way for tackling the greater issues. The best informed officials say that progress—or the lack of it—on these issues will determine whether or not there is to be a summit conference. But in the "atmosphere of civility," as Kennedy called it, they are somewhat more hopeful for the future.

The major immediate issues are

Orrtanna

By MRS. LUTHER WETZEL

ORRTANNA—Miss Sandra McCleaf was in charge of devotions at the semimonthly meeting of the Orrtanna MYF recently. After the secretary's and treasurer's reports were given, the group made plans for the next two months.

In May there will be a roller skating party and in June a swimming party will be held at Boiling Springs. In April a record hop will be held. Details will be announced later. Refreshments were served by the Misses Sandra McCleaf and Faye Melhorn. The next meeting will be held February 1 at 7:30 p.m. at the same place. Refreshments will be served by Mike Wyatt and Jackie Sharran.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lewis, Thurmout, were weekend visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Singley, parents of Mrs. Lewis.

JFK SERIOUS FOR HIS FIRST CONFERENCE

By RELMAN MORIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has been in office only six days but the crushing problems and mighty responsibilities of it already have stamped him in manner and appearance. He was a deeply serious man Wednesday in his first presidential news conference.

He listened intently, with total concentration, to the questions. Sometimes, he looked a little wary. Once or twice, a slight frown notched his forehead between his eyes. He spoke more slowly than usual, carefully choosing his words. He smiled only

Mrs. Melvin Wentz, and sons, Stephen and Dennis, Hanover.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rich and daughters, Mary Alice and Maggie Jo, returned to Pittsburgh after spending some time with relatives here. They were called here due to the death of Mrs. Margaret Shindeldecker, mother of Mrs. Rich.

once—whereas, before, a certain jauntiness and sparkling humor invariably appeared when he met the correspondents.

SEEMED PREOCCUPIED

This first news conference also was history's first live-televized presidential question and answer session. (President Eisenhower held one in San Francisco prior to the 1956 Republican convention, but it was about politics, not the problems of government.)

This fact, however, probably did not account for the deeply thoughtful, almost preoccupied air that Kennedy wore.

He had appeared on TV many times, as a senator and a candidate, and deftly fielded questions from reporters. The camera never appeared to awe him.

MORE SOLEMN

Nor did he give any sign that he was conscious of a vast TV audience watching him and the radio audience listening to the broadcast from the auditorium in the State Department.

He looked, if anything, even more solemn during the 36½ minutes of the conference than he looked last Friday noon when he took the oath of office.

Kennedy appeared only once to have missed part of a question. He quickly demonstrated three qualities.

First, a dramatic sense of timing. He opened the conference with some announcements. But he put the biggest news last, the news that the Soviet Union had released two American fliers who were shot down in the RB-47 plane and imprisoned since last July 1. A gasp ran around the room.

Second, the unmistakable ring of authority. It rang in his voice especially when he said, "I have ordered that they (the U-2 reconnaissance plane flights over the Soviet Union not be resumed)." And it came again, firmly, when he commented on his first executive order to send more food to depressed areas.

Third, the quick, nimble mind. Usually, while a reporter was still stating his question, Kennedy began nodding slightly. He grasped the intent of a question and had his answer ready immediately. He seldom had to reach for a word.

GRANBY, Conn. (AP)—When the North Granby fire department decided to sell a 1923 fire engine, teen-ager Julie Peck came forward.

She paid $320 for the engine after admitting to being "a real fire buff."

The pert Smith College freshman didn't say what she intended to do with the fully-equipped engine.

BUST THEIR BEER BUST

ELY, Minn. (AP)—Teen-agers in the senior class at Ely High School thought they had the perfect hideaway for a pre-graduation beer party.

They used a jeep shuttle to haul students into a roadless, swampy area in tangled brush country near here.

But officers kept ahead of the plotters. They watched the direction of the traffic flow, then used commando tactics to sneak up on the party, rounding up all but a few of the more than 40 teenagers and two barrels of beer, one of them half empty.

Ever pound grated Parmesan or Romano cheese into thinly sliced veal cutlet before breading and frying? Delicious flavor!

Scholarships Are Awarded To Two

HARRISBURG (AP)—Epsilon Sigma Phi, a fraternity of Penn State extension specialists, Wednesday awarded $100 scholarships to William A. Reagan Jr., Chambersburg, and Alfred T. Skalla, Wilkes-Barre.

The recipients are assistant county agents. The awards are decided on basis of merit and need to help finance advanced professional study.

The fraternity also elected Helen Butler, Bellefonte, president; Russell Smith, Tionesta, vice president, and Alice Murray, University Park, secretary.
